NOW WE KNOW EXACTLY

Now we know exactly where we are. The British 2 Pat Brocklesby. people have been fighting in other countries under conditions that were not always pleasant. There seemed to be traitors everywhere. Now they are all back on their own soil and every man is a fighter and every woman is by ready to back the fighters to the limit. The Dominions! are sending in both supplies and men, airplanes and tanks. Harry Menzies. Britons are ready, not only to defend their country but to fight back. It will be a strenuous fight—a fight to the finish.

In addition, there is a large army in the eastern thea-1 tre, centering around Palestine. In this army are the famous Indian fighters. who distinguished themselves in previous wars; Australians, who are among the best fighters; in the world, and many Arabs and other Mohammedans Blake, 3 Murray Sharpe. who are fanatics when it comes to war. There is also an Egyptian army that can give a good account of itself. It' is possible too that the Turkish army will be ready to take Braun, 3 Leona Tricker. part.

On the whole, we can make a good showing. With a powerful navy and right on our side, we are not at all beaten. Much will depend upon the kind of fight we all Davis, 2 Maurice Teng, 3 Tom Pilput up. Every man and woman should consider himself, fold.

A.DEPRESSING DAY

Yesterday was a depressing day for most people felt sad over what was considered to be treachery on the part gold from 115 pounds of ore was of Premier Petain. The French people were sad because gold field by F. J. Swift and G their country was conquered and they were now under the Marxeggio after they had worked thumb of two dictators. As long as they are in the ascen- the ground only two weeks. dency these dictators will see that France has no chance to rise again to a dominant position. The only hope for the French now is that the British will defeat the Germans and Italians and give them back their territory and what, is left of their navy.

Bel'amy Wins Men's Singles And Borland and Norrington Men's Doubles In Club Competition

Prince Rupert Tennis Club concluded a very successful club tournament Tuesday evening when, after many delays because of wet weather, the men's singles and doubles finals were run off, resulting as follows:

Men's singles-Bellamy beat Fulton, 3-6, 6-1, 6-2, 1-6, 6-2. Men's doubles - Borland and Norrington beat Lambie and Gwyer, 7-5, 6-4, 8-6.

Both matches produced some sparkling tennis. In the singles Bellamy's experience and stroking proved the deciding factor. In the idoubles prolonged rallies and accurate placements were the order.

Considering the dull threatening weather a fair sized and interested gallery attended.
