Quiet Wedding At Burns Lake

Miss Margaret Camp Becomes Bride Of Roy Jewell

BURNS LAKE, May 17.—A quiet wedding was solemnized in the United Church manse on Thursday evening of last week when Miss Margaret McNeil Camp of Vancouver became the bride of Roy Henry Jewell of Burns Lake. Rev. Adam Crisp officiated. The witnesses were Mrs. J. H. Jewell and Mr. Ernest Moore. The young couple are to reside in Burns Lake.

TERRACE

Mrs. George Little and Miss Clara Little were at home to a number of friends on Thursday afternoon. Miss Little is home after an absence of about two years in the south.

The village commissioners put through several items of useful business at the monthly meeting. Among these was the appointment of a pound keeper for the year and some further improvements to the municipal water system. Most of the sidewalks have been repaired with new plank decking where repairs appeared necessary. The railway authorities have been approached with an invitation to arrange an excursion from Prince Rupert to Terrace on Dominion Day.

Burns Lake Mothers' Day

BURNS LAKE, May 17.—A very fine Mothers' Day service was held in the United Church at Burns Lake, on Sunday.

Two musical selections, "Mother's Day" and "We Thank Thee For Mother," were well rendered by the church choir. Other musical items were a solo by Miss Louise Miner, "Wonderful Mother of Mine," and a solo by Mrs. J. Clark, "Tell Mother I'll Be There." Master Tommy Smith delighted everyone present with his appropriate song, "Can a Boy Forget His Mother?" Readings were given by several members of the congregation. Those taking part were Mrs. J. Gowans, Miss R. Campbell, Mrs. Thomas Smith and Mrs. J. Clark. "Our Mothers" was the title of the service preached by Rev. Adam Crisp.

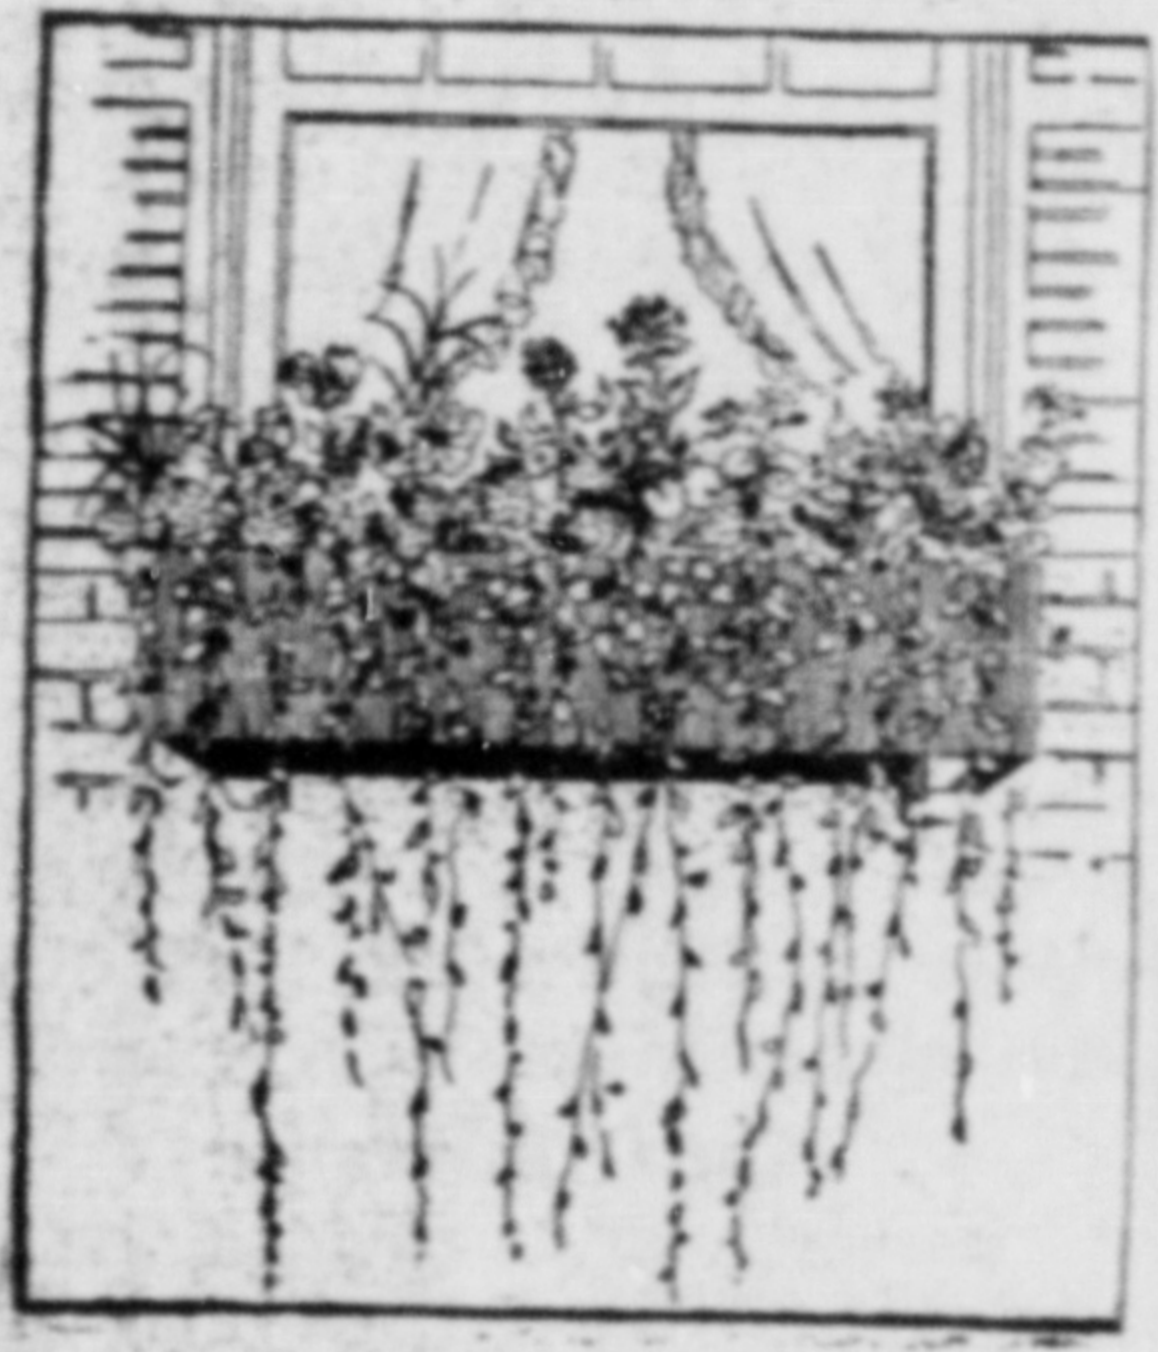

MA' INOT IS BULWARK BENDIGO, Australia, May 17: (CP)—"Bulwark against German aggression" was the definition given the Maginot Line by the Australian Minister for Air at a civic reception here.

FATAL RABBIT HUNT MELBOURNE, May 17: (CP)—Shouting "You've shot me," Ernest Mathews, 63, died when a bullet ricocheted off a stone and struck him in the chest during a rabbit hunt.

The work of a common thief or some mischievous boy or girl, a Fourth Avenue garden, that of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McMeekin was raided last night and flowers torn from their roots. Other complaints of this kind have been common this year. Anyone interested in flowers should immediately report to the policy if they see anything of this sort going on.

There has been a very beautiful display in the rock garden back of the Court House this spring. Any who have not seen it should visit this beauty spot now. Arthur Bayne is doing excellent work in developing that garden and when it is finished, say in two or three years from now, it should be a wonderful place to visit.

Layout for a neat window box. Often plants that do not succeed outdoors will thrive in a sheltered window box.

Different types of garden are seen in Prince Rupert as elsewhere. Only those with plenty of open space can afford to have big splashes of common flowers such as forget-me-nots or cerastium or Dianthus. Those who have but small garden spaces would do well to confine their gardening to the so-called choicer plants, growing possibly only a few varieties. Take a garden like that of James Boyd on Borden Street. He specializes with sweet peas, roses and glads. He does not want masses of common flowers because they would overrun his choice blooms. Other people who have several city lots can go in for landscape gardening and the common flowers which propagate naturally here prove very useful.

Very soon the Horticultural Society will be making up its prize list for the summer show. Anyone having suggestions to make should get in touch with the secretary, C. G. Ham. He will bring them before the members of the executive at its next meeting.

PEELINGS HEN FOOD LONDON, May 17: (CP)—On show here at the Royal Horticultural Hall was a poultry food containing 80 percent of household refuse including 30 percent potato peelings.

PENNIES FOR CLUBLAND LONDON, May 17: (CP)—Soldiers, sailors and airmen for all parts of the country and overseas are sending pennies to save the famous Clubland, Camberwell Road, S. E. from closing down.
