Lieut .C. Whitehead Gives Interesting Talk on Affairs in Interior of Chinese Republic

Telling of the marvellous work done for China by Madame Chiang Kai Shek, wife of the president, in improving the condition of the people of that country Lieut. C. Whitehead of the Canadian Army Service Corps gave an address to the Rotary Club at its regular weekly luncheon. Some interesting things about the Orient were told. He suggested at the opening that this lady was the moving spirit in China. She found herself faced with the tremendous task of influencing an illiterate people and teaching them modern scientific rules of conduct.

Discussing the question of the "open door" in Japanese-controlled Φοσοσοσοσοσοσοσοσοσοσοσο countries, Lieut. Whitehead said the Japanese professed to welcome foreign trade while in fact taxation made it impossible for foreigners to do business. In Manchuria, for instance, the tax on electrical goods amounted in all to about 80 per cent while Japanese merchants paid only 10 per cent.
