OF CHURCH

"Consider the purpose of the ], Church. Look at its success. It has kept the faith for nineteen centuries and has exerted its influence on governments to a remarkable degree. It has produced most of the leaders of men. The fruits of the Church are seen all over the country. The British Empire is one of the fruits of the Church. Consider the character of the British people, one of the finest products of the Church. Chris- Holtby. tion people have a strong desire for what is right-an equal love for the good. The retiring commissioner saw as a sign of revived interest in real estate and building here the fact that during the past month the city had sold more property than during the entire first four or five years he had been here. The Premier said that the real estate which now reposed in the hands of city for taxes might yet pay the entire municipal debt. This was a statement with which he (Mr. Alder) was inclined to agree.

Mr. Alder referred to the fact how local co-operation might be that the provincial government had last year paid up $40,000 of taxes it owed the city and that the Premier had given assurance that the remaining $40,000 might be expect-
