LION'S TEETH SHARPENED AFTER BATTLE

British marines are shown drawing huge sponges and wire brushes through one of the big guns of an English battleship following the bombardments of Forts Capuzzo and Bardia recently. Note the smokesmudged muzzles of the usually spotless and gleaming cannon. Diligent cleaning and care of these weapons assures their longer useful [illegible] and accuracy of fire.

PRINCE GEORGE

Civic offices for 1941 were filled by acclamation today at Prince George when there were just sufficient nominations to fill the various posts as follows:

Mayor, A. M. Patterson; aldermen—J. N. Keller, C. C. Reid and T. J. Hocking; school trustees—A. L. Patterson, Frank Clark, J. Roberts.

A successful Penny Carnival was held by the High School students of Prince George on Saturday the entire proceeds going to the Red Cross. There were all manner of attractions and a big dance was enjoyed. There was a burning of Adolf Hitler in effigy. A splendid list of prizes, all donated by Prince George merchants, were put up.

Joe Landry, formerly of Prince Rupert and Vancouver, has arrived in Prince George to join the branch of the Bank of Montreal at Prince George.

The Prince George manager of an air line had a ride from the airport to the hotel in the hearse last week. There was a misunderstanding and the hearse went to meet an incoming plane. The air official was hoisted into the hearse by mistake.

Rain followed suddenly by frost made roads in this district very dangerous for driving last week.

Tracey Wheeler has joined the staff of Prince George Motors here as garage foreman mechanic.

Recruits for the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps and the Royal Canadian Air Force are being sought in Prince George by the district recruiting officer, Major R. L. Gale.

Mrs. McMillan, who has been visiting in Prince George with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lang, has left for Vancouver.

James M. Henderson, for many years district superintendent for the Imperial Oil Co. at Prince George, has been transferred to head office at Vancouver. R. C. Carson, city agent at Prince George for years, succeeds Mr. Henderson as district agent while E. B. Hunter has arrived from Vancouver to take over the city agency.

George Docherty, after spending some months with the Home Guards at Victoria, has been invalided out of the service and has returned to Prince George to resume his express and freighting business.

A very enjoyable sleighing party was held last Friday evening by the Young People's Fellowship of Knox United Church.

In aid of the Christmas hamper fund, an enjoyable dance was held by the Prince George Elks' Lodge on Friday night.

Miss Norine Patterson has been able to return to her home after an operation in the Prince George Hospital.

Tommy Tibbets of the Prince George Motors Limited has taken a position with the provincial public works department.

Jerome Jarvis, four-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Jarvis of Read Lake, died of pneumonia in the Prince George Hospital last week.

The Prince George Women's Institute is meeting this afternoon for the election of officers.

The regular meeting of the Prince George Women's Liberal Association was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Miller, Eleventh Avenue.

The Prince George Little Theatre Association is planning an active season. A meeting was held last night in the library of the public school.
