Piano Pupils Of Miss Margaret McCaffery And Miss Jean Mc-Lean Acquit Themselves To Good Advantage

Before a large gathering of admiring parents and friends, some forty of the piano students of Miss Margaret McCaffery and Miss Jean McLean were heard to excellent advantage in a splendid term closing recital at Annunciation Hall last night. That the pupils, had been making excellent progress in their musical studies was amply demonstrated. Some twenty of the students who took part had just completed their first year.

Speaking briefly at the close of the program, Miss McCaffery announced that she was leaving Prince Rupert before next term but had made arrangements for Columbia presents the new Miss Ruth Nelson to return here from Victoria to take over her classes with which Miss Jean Mc-Lean would continue to be identi-

Mickey Rooney Portrays Famous Inventor as Boy in Interesting Picture

Portraying his first real life character, Mickey Rooney plays the title role in "Young Tom Edison" which is the feature picture on the Boston screen of the Capitol Theatre for Detroit the first half of this week. Teamed New York with him is another popular juven- St. Louis ile star, Virginia Weidler, who plays Chicago the part of his sister. Also in stel- Philadelphia lar roles are Fay Bainter as Mrs. Washington Edison and George Bencroft as the father. Other well known members of the cast are Eugene Pallette, Victor Kilian, Bobbie Jordan, J. M. Kerrigan and Lloyd Corrigan.

The story, with intense humaninterest value, covers only the boyhood of the famous inventor's life. It is replete with comedy, drama, tears, thrills and adventure, delineating the triumph of a typical boy who had to show his home folks that he was not the numbskull they thought him to be.

Many of the bona fide incidents of young Edison's early life are said to be accurately depicted.

From The Waterfront

Northland Transportation Co.'s steamer North Sea, Capt. A. W.
