Praises Buckley's Mixture for

GRIPPY COUGHS AND COLDS

Read what Mr. H. Hughes, Little Bras D'Or, N.S., has to say about Buckley's Mixture: "Some weeks ago I had grippe and was too sick to get up or take anything but cold water. I tried several remedies without any benefit. At last I tried Buckley's Mixture and after a few doses could eat something and continued to improve every day. I cannot praise your Mixture too much."

We have thousands of similar unsolicited testimonials on file, telling how quickly Buckley's Mixture stops the cough, softens phlegm, eases breathing, clears the head, helps rid sufferers of coughs and colds. Don't experiment. Buy Buckley's.

NEW WAR DEPICTED

"The Lion Has Wings," Up To The Minute Picture, Showing on Screen of Capitol Theatre Here

A record of the new World War up to the very moment of the film's release, "The Lion Has Wings," Capital Theatre picture for the first half of this week, is the first of its kind ever produced in the history of the moving picture industry.

The story of the picture is that of the present war from September to the present time as seen through the eyes of an official in the Royal Air Force and his pretty young wife. Ralph Richardson and Merle Oberin play these parts in the film and the cast also includes June Duprez, Anthony Bushell, Robert Douglas and Derrick De Marney.

Introduced by a prologue which dramatically traces the events leading up to the beginning of hostilities, the film includes in its narrative re-enactments such historic events as the British bombing attack on Keil Canal, a Nazi air raid on London, some famous aerial encounters between the planes of Germany and England. There are authentic scenes of Great Britain's great defences.

Imperial Order, daughters of the Empire members, to the number of about thirty, will attend the first showing of "The Lion Has Wings" tonight, a special section being reserved for them.
