"Let Us Live," With Maureen O'Sullivan, Henry Fonda and Ralph Bellamy, At Capitol

"Let Us Live," which has been hailed as one of the best screen dramas of the year, comes as the feature offering to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here for tonight only. Maureen O'Sullivan, Henry Fonda and Ralph Bellamy are the principal players. The story is that of a young taxi driver and his sweetheart. When a murder is committed by young bandits in the course of a hold-up, eye witnesses positively identify the young cabbie as leader of the gang. A net of circumstantial evidence makes tense the desperate efforts of the boy and girl, aided by a detective, to prove his innocence. It is a poignant story of every day life and; every day people.

Double-billed with "Let Us Live" is a hilarious comedy "The Day thei Bookies Wept" with Joe Penner at the race track. The plot deals with the efforts of a group of taxi driv- Len Williams, is due in port at 7 ers to make themselves wealthy at o'clock this evening from Alaska, of the piece.
