THE WAY TO JUDGE

It is possible that there are German sympathizers in Prince Rupert district who listen to the German radio! broadcasts or to the pro-German American broadcasts. Also there may be Italian sympathizers who listen to the Italian broadcasts. These, it will be noticed, never agree with the British broadcasts.

If there are any who believe these alien broadcasts, they should remember that the records show that in al-. WANTED-A 2 or 3-room cabin by most every case the German and Italian broadcasts have later proved to be wrong whereas, in almost every case the modest and candid British broadcasts have been right To argue the truth is probably half way between the two would still be incorrect. Hitler laid down the principle that lies would be believed if only they were repeated often enough. He also believed in the big lie rather than the small one. His friend Mussolini seems to be following in the footsteps of the German leader and is giving out misleading information, presumably for the purpose of NOW IS THE TIME TO GET A trying to cheer up his own people. With a controlled press this is possible but in a democracy it is not possible.

HITLER'S PROMISE

Hitler has promised his people that on August 15, which is Thursday of next week, he will enter London in state. If he does that he will have to speed up his invasion. It was thought that he might make the attempt this week while the tides and other conditions have been favorable. However, the incessant war on his supply centres and other military objectives in Germany have had a somewhat discouraging effect. The British planes are scouting the whole coast line from the northern tip of Norway FOR SALE-32 foot cabin cruiser, to the south of France with a view to detecting any sign of possible invading fleets. When anything suspicious is found it is bombed. This is something of a deterrent to the blitzkrieg that has been promised. It may not prevent an attack but it makes the invasion difficult. Having command of the air and sea is a great advantage for In the Matter of Samuel George Lindthe British.

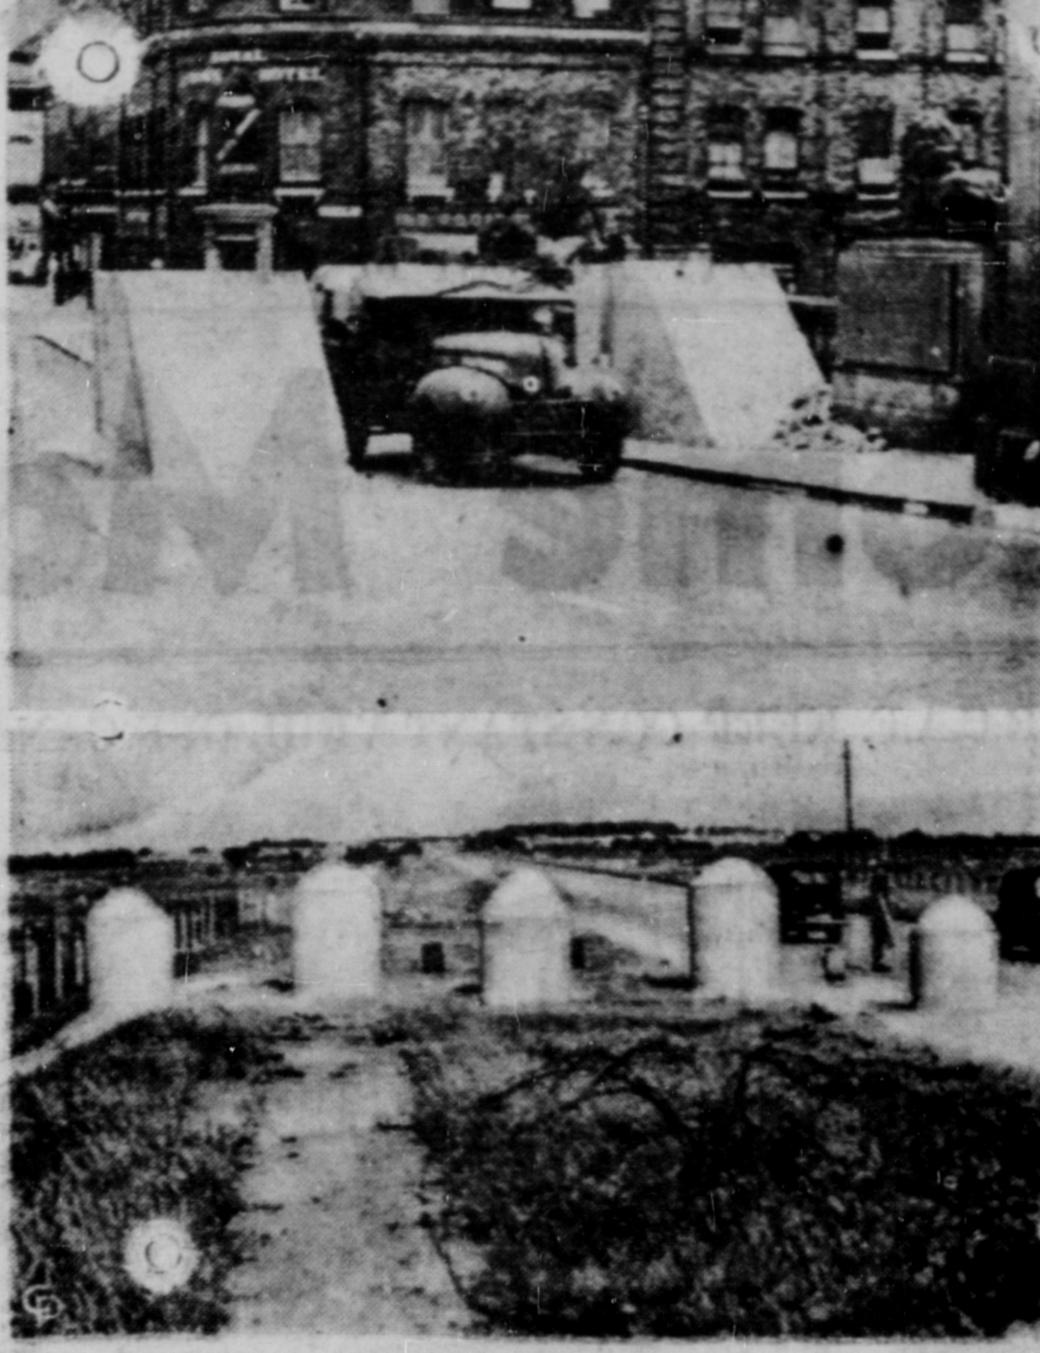

CONTINUING HIGHWAY

Another section of the highway connecting Prince Honor Judge Robertson, Local Judge Rupert with Hazelton is to be built this fall. Work on it county of Prince Rupert acting in the is to emmence at once. The contract for four miles be- place of and tween Usk and Cedarvale has been let. This narrows the 7th 1940 appointed Administrator of gap connecting Terrace with the rest of the world and, with the Estate when that is finished, there will be a strong demand to samuel George Lindsay, otherwise have Prince Rupert connected with Terrace on a similar Aylmer, Quebec who died contractual basis.

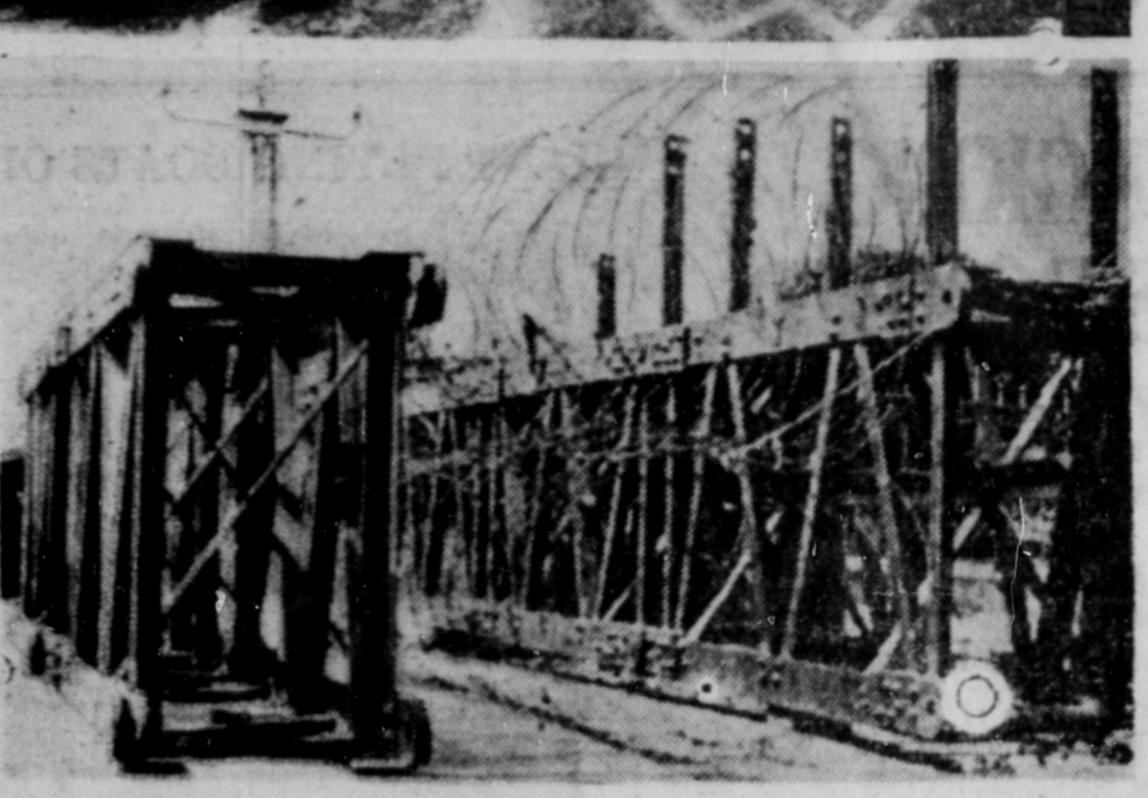

MACHINE-GUNNING DROWNING PEOPLE

One of the nasty little habits of the Germans in this war is the machine-gunning of drowning men and women debted to the said Estate are required when they are struggling in the water. It is just one in- to pay the balance of their indebtedstance of German savagery, many others having been DATED at Prince Bupert, B. C. this brought to light at various times during the course of the present war.

BRITAIN READY FOR NAZI BLOW

While Adolf Hitler boasts and rants, England is quietly and cal nly taking measures to insure that German forces will never be able to stage a successful blitzkrieg against the tight little island. Tank barriers are being erected, and these huge concrete pillars, left, will prove a strong barrier against any invading mechanized force. All signposts have been removed from English highways and detachments of troops keep a close tab on all travelling motorists, upper right. Barbed wire lines the highways at strategic points, ready to be thrown into position at a moment's notice, lower right.
