GOOD BILL

Drama and Comedy Are Featured On Double Bill

An excellent double bill is the offering at the Capitol Theatre this afternoon and evening. One is "And One Was Beautiful," a dramatic story by Alice Duer Miller, and the other "Beware Spooks," an hilarious Joe E. Brown comedy.

The cast of "And One Was Beautiful," comes to the screen headed by Robert Cummings, Laraine Day. Jean Muir and Billie Burke. The story is that of a girl whose beauty brings tragedy to all about her. Miss Muir plays a beautiful socialite, and Miss Day her younger ister. The man they both love faces prison to protect the older gir! from blame following a fatal automobile crash. The younger girl. torn between love for the man and loyalty to her sister, knows the truth and is in the grip of a dilemma that wracks her soul. Dramatic highlights include the fata: crash, climax of a series of intrigues in the smart set, the breathless moment in court where the girl hovers between silence, and the truth, the pledge of the younger girl to her lover to keep silence, and the dramatic climax amid which gay scenes in the
