Another of Popular Family Pictures is Showing at Capitol Theatre

"Andy Hardy Meets Debutante," ninth of the series of popular Judge Hardy family pictures, was shown Monday and yesterday at the Capitol Theatre here and proved quite as diverting as its predecessors. It is being repeated tonight.

When Judge Hardy goes to New York to fight the most important legal battle of his career, he takes the family with him. Andy had previously worked up an infatuation for a big city glamor girl and had actually boasted that he knew her. On arriving at New York, Andy is forced to make good on his boast and his methods of doing so get him from one side-splitting situation into another. Finally, while the judge comes close to losing his case. Andy does manage to scrape up an acquaintance with the girl.

Lewis Stone and Mickey Rooney, the United Church of Canada, in of course, play the parts of Judge the course of a tour of this district Hardy and Andy respectively.
