Northbound from Vancouver to Skagway with a capacity list of passengers consisting largely of Northern British Columbians and Yukoners going in for the season after having spent the winter outside, C.P.R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. William Palmer, arrived in port at 10:30 this morning from the south, sailing an hour later for Alaska whence she is due back next Monday afternoon southbound. In all the Princess Norah had 103 passengers on board of whom one disembarked here while twelve went aboard at this port.

C.N.R. steamer Prince John, Capt. Edward Mabbs, is expected in port late tonight or early tomorrow morning from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands. She left Queen Charlotte at 6:30 last night for Massett Inlet where she was making her calls today.

Two Canadian halibut boats Gulvik, 11,500 pounds, and Gony, ,14,000 pounds—were in with catches this morning. Refusing bids of 10c and 8c, they are holding over until tomorrow.
