International Fisheries Commission
Coming Next Week—Herring Not Schooled Up Yet—Week-end Shipping Activity.

The International Fisheries Commission, of which L. W. Patmore K. C., formerly of this city, is chairman, will be in Prince Rupert on December 3 to confer with committees of boat owners and fishermen in regard to proposed regulations for the 1941 season. The Commission will be making a tour of the coast on its own boat and from here will proceed to Ketchikan, Juneau and Sitka. Included in the party will be Dr. W. F. Thompson, former director of scientific operations for the commission; Dr. H. A. Dunlop, the present director, and N. L. Freeman. The Canadian Halibut Owners' Association had a meeting here Sunday to discuss questions which will be taken up with the Commission at its session. Capt. Ole Stegavig presided in the absence through illness of the president, Capt. J. M. Morrison.

Capt. Chris Jensen was out prospecting in the harbor for herring during the week-end with his new seineboat Anna M. Plenty of signs of fish were seen but they have not schooled up sufficiently as yet to permit of seining.

A large 200,000 gallon oil tank was brought in by the Armour Salvage Co. several days ago from Anyox and is at present moored on its scow at the company's local dock. Soon it will be taken on to Butedale where it is to be used for oil storage purposes in connection with

SPITFIRE FUND

Editor, Daily News:
Referring to your editorial regarding "Spitfire Fund".

Personally, I would be glad to donate the equivalent of one day's pay to this worthy cause.

As this patriotic gesture on the part of the Prince Rupert Daily

News is in its infancy, I presume you would be open to suggestions.

You state in your editorial that it would be a fine thing if it could be done without canvassing. I quite agree with you on this point.

Donating a Spitfire to the British Isles is a very serious matter. Men women and children are being blown to pieces. Anything to be done by the patriotic citizens of Prince Rupert on behalf of these victims, calls for speed.

Why not pick one day, say in the second week of December and call this day "Prince Rupert Spitfire Day." All those who wish to show their appreciation of the splendid courage displayed by the people of Britain, could donate one day's work to build a Spitfire. Although they were working at their own avocation, they would feel that they were building a Spitfire plane that day.

Those receiving a small salary would be donating as much as those drawing larger salaries, as each would contribute one day's labor to this cause.

The head of each department and business would supervise the payroll deductions, eliminating the necessity of canvassing.

Of course, this patriotic venture here was in order to wait for the ladies contributing their share.

Each person donating one day's work would have their name placed on a nominal roll published in the Daily News and be given a certificate which would entitle them to a banquet to be held on here while twelve went north a given night.

This is where the ladies would contribute their share to the cause.

And who knows, Prince Rupert might donate a Spit for Hit? and a Hurricane for Muss?

S. J. P. W.

If you want something, advertise for it. Hundreds of people get what they want that way. (tf)
