Anglican Tea At Ocean Falls Is Successful Event

OCEAN FALLS, March 19 — A very successful tea and sale of home cooking was held in the Anglican church hall by the Woman's Auxiliary. The tea tables were gay with daffodils from local gardens.

An interesting item on the program was a delightful vocal solo by Mrs. Harold Clark, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Fleming. Mrs. Clark is a recent addition to Ocean Falls society. Besides the President, Mrs. Denholme, the conveners who made the tea a success were:

Home cooking, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Potterton, Mrs. Hodson, Mrs. D. A. Robertson, Mrs. Simon, Mrs. Kennedy.

Kitchen and tea tables: Mrs. Brownhill, Mrs. Thorp, Mrs. Elfred, Mrs. Compton.

CARRY ON CAMPAIGN

No Political Excitement In Bulkley Valley Although Many Meetings Held

SMITHERS, March 19:—Liberal committee rooms have been opened in Smithers in the Anger Block on Main Street and are being kept open until the election is over. Campaigners for all parties are now circulating through the valley and meetings are being held in every country schoolhouse.

The Conservative candidate, George Cameron, had a meeting in Smithers on Thursday evening which was fairly well attended.

Senator King and Dr. W. T. Kergin will have a meeting here in support of Olof Hanson on Monday evening while the C. C. F. candidate will hold his meeting here on Tuesday evening.

There is no excitement in the air at all and the meetings all pass off in a quiet and orderly manner, there being not even any questions asked of the various speakers.

For the most part the people of this district seem to be well satisfied with the record of the Liberal government and there is no indication that there will be anything to worry about in the Skeena riding so far as the Liberal candidate is concerned.

DOING WELL FROM MINE

Gratifying Returns for Leasers of Duthie Property Near Smithers

SMITHERS, March 19.—Returns from a shipment of thirty-three tons of ore from the Duthie mine, made recently by the leasers, Kelly and Herman, who came here from Grand Forks last fall and started operations in a small way, were very gratifying to the operators. It is reported that the ore, which had been concentrated to some extent, returned them $145 per ton.

They have enough ore in sight to keep them going for some months and are quite pleased with the property.

Mr. Kelly moved his family here last fall and has been living at the mine while Mr. Herman is going south immediately to bring his family and his brother back to Smithers with him.

TERRACE

Mrs. J. Sparkes and baby son and Mrs. Sparkes' sister, Mrs. P. van Stuik, left on Friday's train for their old home in Edmonton for a holiday visit.

Mrs. Homer Levesque left on Friday's train for Eugen to spend Easter with her mother there.

The political pot boiled over in Terrace on Friday when there were opposing harangues going on right across the street from each other. In the Oddfellows' Hall Dr. W. T. Kergin and Senator J. H. King were expounding the principles of Liberalism while, in the theatre opposite, George Weaver thumped the table in the interests of the C.C.F. party. It was perhaps unfortunate for both these political meetings that a public dance had been advertised and that this absorbed whatever foot-loose crowd that was available. Consequently, neither of the halls found its seating accommodation overtaxed.

The social whirl of Terrace continued on Saturday. There was a Catholic tea and sale of work in the Orange Hall and the Conservatives had George Cameron speaking at the Oddfellows' Hall.

Q. C. CITY

As usual, keen interest is being taken on the Queen Charlotte Islands in the federal election contest and the respective merits of the various parties are being thoroughly discussed. So far the only candidates to favor the Islands with personal visits have been the Liberal, Olof Hanson, and the C.C.F., George Weaver. The platforms of the various parties are being thoroughly searched for what they may contain in a constructive way.

Mrs. A. L. Richardson, Mrs. E. S. Richardson and Mrs. S. deBucy were recent visitors in Skidegate and Queen Charlotte City, having motored down from Tlell.

One of the most enjoyable dances held in a long time on the Queen Charlotte Islands was that which took place at Lawn Hill under the auspices of the East Coast Farmers' Institute. Mrs. Verner Douglas of Skidegate managed the affair and there was a large attendance with people from all parts of the Islands present.

E. S. Richardson of Tlell has been elected president and James Denholme, also of Tlell, secretary-treasurer of the East Coast of the Queen Charlotte Island Farmers' Institute for the coming year.

Ocean Falls Enjoys Plays

Performers Acquit Themselves Creditably in Studio Presentations

OCEAN FALLS, March 19: — A studio performance put on by the Playmakers last Tuesday consisted of three one-act plays. First was "The Maker of Dreams" in which Margaret Thompson made a sweet Pierrette while an egotistical Pierrot was portrayed by Jack Ainsworth. The dream-maker was played by Glen Large. All the parts were well taken under the direction of Miss Edgecombe.

The next play was "The Singapore Spider." Bill Gray gave a realistic performance. Mrs. Sweeney was a downtrodden housekeeper while Frank Street made a very convincing drunk. The only happy characters were H. Murphy and his little sweetheart, Nancy Grant. In this play also the acting was far above the average amateur performance. Mrs. Tannis Ainsworth was the director.

The closing number was a rollicking farce, "Old Moore's Almanac," played by Mrs. Cochrane, Mrs. Ainsworth, Arline Lee, a chorus girl, Mrs. Calhoun, as the infatuated son of the house, and Fay Lois Sweeney as the villainess. Mrs. Calhoun directed the piece which kept the audience in gales of laughter and left them wishing for more.

'FOUR WIVES' IS SHOWING

Delightful Sequel to "Four Daughters" is Capitol Feature for First Half of Week

"Four Wives," sequel to last year's "Four Daughters," is the feature picture for the first half of this week at the Capitol Theatre. The same cast as in the first picture is seen in the second with Priscilla, Rosemary and Lola Lane and Gale Page in the title roles and also John Garfield, Jeffrey Lynn, Claude Rains, May Robson, Frank McHugh, Dick Foran and Vera Lewis. John Garfield, who died in the original story, returns in the sequel as a vision.

An addition in the sequel is constituted by four baby girls.

"Four Wives" takes up the story where "Four Daughters" left off. The two eldest daughters are already married while the youngest, widowed in the early film, is about to marry her first love when she learns that she is to have a baby by her first husband. The third daughter, who didn't "get her man" in the first picture, makes a play for the family doctor in the second.

"Four Wives" is certainly quite as delightful a picture as was "Four Daughters" and the most of local moviegoers undoubtedly will see it.
