UNITED IN MARRIAGE MISS MILLS IS HONORED

Miss Dorothy Fowler Becomes Bride of Darrow Gomez at Interesting Ceremony

At the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. G. Viereck, at Seal Cove, the marriage of Miss Dorothy Tryphena Fowler and Darrow Gomez took place at 7:30 last night. Four generations of the bride's family were present at the interesting nuptial rites which were performed by Canon W. F. Rushbrook. Only immediate members of the family were present.

The bride was pretty in her wedding dress of white net over white satin, redingote style, with hand embroidered veil and orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of pink carnations and fern.

The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Fowler, sister of the bride, had an attractive costume of pink net over dusty rose, her bouquet being red carnations and ferns.

James Woods was groomsmen. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the East End Hall. The couple entered the hall to the strains of the Wedding March played by Marie Bussanich.

The guests were received by Mrs. Thomas Glenn, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Alex Gomez, mother of the groom.

Canon Rushbrook proposed a toast to the bridesmaid, the groomsmen responding.

Refreshments were served, buffet style, the wedding cake being duly cut by the bride. Dancing followed with music by Mario Bussanich.

Mr. and Mrs. Gomez will take up residence on Alfred Street.

Both bride and groom have lived here practically all their lives. The bride was born in California but came here as a young child. The groom is a native son of Prince Rupert.

A farewell party was held in the Japanese Mission Hall last night in honor of Miss S. A. Mills, principal of Borden Street School, who is to leave here shortly. The party was sponsored by the Japanese Association, Mothers' Guild club and the Japanese Canadian Youth Organization.

The evening was spent in playing many enjoyable games after which delicious refreshments were served. Hedy Suehiro acted as chairman of the evening.

Miss K. Lang spoke on behalf of the Mothers' Guild Club and thanked Miss Mills for her untiring work in the education of the children.

Myoichi Kihara and Hiro Yamataka, as former pupils of Miss Mills, spoke briefly on behalf of the students.

Guest speakers included Bishop G. A. Rix, J. S. Wilson, Miss Mercer and Miss Lillian Halliwell.

H. Yamataka, as president of the Japanese Association, expressed the appreciation of the community and presented Miss Mills with a leather hand bag and a beautiful gold wrist watch. Miss Mills replied suitably.

The evening was brought to a close by singing the Borden Street School song and "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" followed by three rousing cheers for Miss Mills, led by Mr. Wilson.

Masonic Organ Dance Success

Splendid Affair Held Last Night in Banquet Hall of Temple

The Masonic Hall was beautifully decorated with patriotic adornments last night when about two hundred persons attended a delightful dance for the organ fund of Tyee and Tsimpsean Lodges. The affair was an outstanding success, financially and otherwise. A feature was the transmitting of organ music from the lodge room to the banquet hall where the dance was held.
