COLOSSAL SALE

Last Days

Last Days of this sale are nearing; the days are numbered before Watts and Nickerson quit this location forever. The hundreds and hundreds of people of Rupert who have patronized this sale, this greatest of all sales, since its commencement a week ago, realize that it has been an honest and sincere effort on behalf of Watts and Nickerson to build goodwill with the population of this city and district. It was our desire to pass these bargains on to you rather than dispose of our original stock in block. It was utterly impossible to accommodate this stock on the new premises. You all realize that. The merchandise that is on sale is of our own original stock and not out the balance quickly. In practically every instance the goods you now buy are dollars below cost. You may come to this sale daily until its termination with positive assurance that give-aways are in store for you.

"BILL" WATTS,
"ART" NICKERSON.

Costs have been disregarded. Prices have reached lower levels than I have ever known. It has been made necessary to speed up the disposal of this stock to you. I have combed this stock, consolidating lines and striking lower price levels. The balance of this stock is yours practically at your own price. Every purchase means dollars in your pocket. You surely will say "Thanks for such unheard of bargains."
