Splendid Outing in Enterior For Young Ranger Band

BURNS LAKE, Aug. 13:- The girls Young Ranger Band of British Columbia held their annual camp at Pinkut Lake during the period extending from July 26 to August 5 inclusive and it was a memorable outing for all.

When the girls from various points as far west as Hazelton and |East to Vanderhoof arrived at camp, everything was in working order as the Boys' Young Ranger Band had done considerable work in beautifying the grounds as well as in leaving the tents in good order previous to their departure.

After the arrival of the girls, the camp was officially declared open by Mrs. W. Wilson who gave an appropriate speech for the occa-

COUPLE WED

of Trevor Hill at Ceremony Saturday Night

A wedding of much local interest took place Saturday evening at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. J. H. Myrwang, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, when Miss Mr. and Mrs. M. Jensen, 418 Sixth Avenue East, became the bride of Trevor Hill, Youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hill, 109 Fifth Avenue West. The marriage rites were quiet, only the contracting couple with their attendants and a few relatives being present. The bridesmaid was Miss Sally Jensen, sister of the bride, and the groomsman was Oke Jaskson.

Miss Blanche Jensen Becomes Bride Naval Battle of River Plate is Reenacted in "For Freedom" With Will Fyffe Starring

Commemorating on the screen one of the greatest exploits in British naval history—the Battle of the River Plate-"For Freedom," a British picture featuring Will Fyffe, Blanche Jensen, second daughter of noted Scottish character actor playing the part of a newsreel chief, is an outstanding attraction for the first half of this week at the Capitol Theatre.

For this picture the battle between the German pocket battle-! ship Graf Spee and three British cruisers was re-enacted in home waters. Officers and men of H.M.S.
