Man in the Moon

In great-grandma's day the girls were "winsome." Successive generations have called it "charm," "class," "it," "what it takes" and "glamor." And now we have news from New York that Patricia Plunkett has been dubbed the No. 1 deb of Park Avenue because she's the cutie with the "most plus." That's the ne plus ultra.

Special appreciation was expressed of the very successful work of Mrs. R. M. Winslow, president of the Association for the past three years and sympathy was expressed with her in her bereavement through the death of her father.

A discussion took place about the desirability of holding the regular meetings at four o'clock in the afternoon instead of at eight o'clock in the evening. This matter will be voted upon at the next regular meeting.

The secretary was asked to acknowledge with thanks the receipt of a cash donation from the Japanese Women's Association.

Following the business meeting, Alex Turnbull, inspector of schools, showed three reels of beautiful colored moving pictures descriptive of the May Day celebration and the ceremonies arranged by the schools of New Westminster for the recent visit of King George and Queen Elizabeth in which 2500 school children took part. The reels also included interesting views of the San Francisco Exhibition, schools and pupils in Mr. Turnbull's inspectorate and scenes in the Canadian Rockies and the British Columbia coast.

BEAVERS IN SOCCER WIN

Defeated Maple Leafs 3 to 1 in King Edward Football

The Beavers won their second game in the King Edward School Football League yesterday when they defeated the Maple Leafs by three goals to one. The latter played shorthanded.

From the start the Beavers attacked and Holkestad scored easily from close in. Beavers had the better of the exchanges and T. Ormiston added a second. The Leafs had a grand chance but Arnsten shot past.

In the second half D. McGreish added a third for the Beavers. Play became faster and, from Wilson's pass, Piffold scored for the Leafs. Soon after the same player shot over. Pierce was dangerous and, with Ormiston and Holkestad, showed good combination but Bartlett and Blake defended strongly. Arnsten also showed up well. Mairs saved splendidly twice with the Leafs trying hard to score but unable to get the ball through.

Teams:

Beavers—Mairs; Menzies, C. Piffold; L. Husoy, D. Murray, T. Ormiston; Haugan, Kiwahara, R. Holkestad (captain), E. Pierce, McGreish, Johansen.

Maple Leafs—J. Prince; Blake; O. Hansen, Bartlett, Rothwell; P. Wilson, Grimbale, Arnsten (captain), Sheppard, T. Piffold.

The league standing:

	P	W	L	D	Pts
Wanderers	7	4	2	1	9
Maple Leafs	8	4	3	1	9
Beavers	7	2	5	0	4
