The engine of the passenger train which a week ago Saturday night plunged through an approach to Lorne Creek bridge has now been set right up and is ready to be lifted to the main track and there is now reason to believe face. that they may not be in the engine at all. Possibly, they were swept away.

GERMANS RECAPTURED CALGARY-Two German aliens were recaptured without a struggle last night four days after escaping from an enemy internment camp.

FREEZE GREEK ASSETS WASHINGTON - The Department of State is expected to immediately announce invokation of neutrality laws against Greece as a belligerent nation. Greek assets in United States will be frozen to prevent them possibly falling into Italian hands. There are virtually no Americans now in Greece.

LAVAL FOREIGN MINISTER VICHY, France, - Vice-Premier Pierre Laval was named foreign minister of the Vichy regime today and former Foreign Minister Paul Baudoin was named Secretary of State. This is taken as another indication of the Vichy government's complete surrender to Germany, confirming that the impotent Marshal Henri Phillippe Petain is head of the government in name only.

NEW AUSTRALIAN GOV'T CANBERRA—The new national government has been formed for Australia from among members of the United Australian and Country Parties. Premier Menzies also holds portfolios of information and defence co-ordination. Harold Holt is called out of the army to become minister of labor and national defence. The veteran William Hughes is attorney gen-Sir Earl Page, head of the Country Party, who broke with Menzies a year or so ago, returns to the coalition government as minister of commerce.

DENOUNCES DICTATORS. WASHINGTON- Naming Germany, Italy and Japan, Secretary of State Cordell Hull gave a stinging denunciation of dictatorships. They would, he said, reduce mankind to a master-slave condition maintained by brute force. They would use deceit, fraud and guile in subpugating the world. It was the intention of the United States to continue aid to the full to nations which were defending themselves from barbarous attack.

JAPANESE WITHDRAWING HONG KONG- The Japanese Army announced today that it was withdrawing from Nanning, strategic communications centre in Kwansi Province, which had been held for nearly a year. The Advice announcement said that further occupation had become "meaningless" on account of Japanese entry into Indo-China. Chinese admit that bridges on the Burma road were destroyed by Japanese air attack but that repairs wehe speedily carried out and traffic over the road is being maintained.

United Church

The special speaker at the eve-Church yesterday was Alfred Carlson of the extension department of the University of British Columbia who is also a probationer morning to the effect that a regu- for the ministry. Mr. Carlson spoke of the need for the church to concern itself with the economic, and political life of the people. Christ had made the life of the people His chief interest and the church would do well to follow in The Exhibition Hall has been His footsteps. There had been a tendency for the church to confine its interests to a narrow outlook of the individual. The answer to many economic and political troubles was the Christian way of co-operative movement. Its success in the east among the Nova | Scotia fishermen was but a hint of what it could achieve. The well but Canada had to go a long way yet. The church had a problem to solve. Christian brotherhood was the solution. Mrs. H. T. Lock sang Hamblen's "Beside Still Waters" very sympathetically and effectively.

The pastor, Rev. J. C. Jackson, sor is Carl Zarelli of the Savoy spoke at the morning service when Hotel. Uniforms have not arrived the singing was led by the Junior Choir. This organization is steadily increasing in numbers and leads reports the city will have seen the hymn singing with success. In nothing like them on a basketball the absence of the regular organfloor since the introduction of the ist through indisposition, H. T. Lock presided at the organ. Mr. The first trial the team expects Jackson continued his review of nual council of the United Church in his address and the marked progress of the church was again emphasized as well as its increasing responsibility.

RAIDS NOT SO HEAVY

LONDON-German planes were reported over west England, the Midlands, the east coast and south Wales today after a series of widespread night raids. Overnight attacks on London were "much less" severe that the previous night, the government said, but the Merseyside section of Liverpool and a Midlands town were reported the hardest hit although casualties were not numerous.
