Six Fine New Row boats Arrive at the Waterfront for the Use of Picnic Parties-Safe, Clean Comfortable Craft.

Every fine day during last summer, and even already this season has seen a shortage of row boats to take the many would be trippers across harbor. The situation will be much improved this season by the advent to the F. M. Davis float of six fine new row-boats. The boats are specially suitable for picnic parties. They are roomy, safe and in beautiful condition. Two are twelve foot craft, two fourteen I foot, and two sixteen foot. They are white painted with dark gunwale strip, and a new supply of beautifully balanced loars arrived with them. Davis is arranging to remodel his boat house for the coming season so as to supply the pubic demand more readily.
