Gvro Club In Business Meet

In addition to receiving nominations for 1941 officers, the Prince Rupert Gyro Club dealt with miscellaneous routine matters at its regular monthly business luncheon yesterday. Reports of various committees were received. These included one on the recnt hoedown dance which resulted in something over $240 being netted for the purpose of purchasing an incubator for the Prince Rupert General Hospital. The incubator is already on order and a suitable ceremony of presentation will be arranged when it ar-

The nominations were W. F. Stone for president, W. J. Scott for secretary, William Cruickshank for treasurer and Frank Dibb, Arnold Flaten, G. L. Rorie, Frank Skinner, H. S. Meadows, J. H. Bulger, L. M. Asemissen and Croft Brook for executive.

The luncheon fare consisted of venison provided by Arnold Flaten.
