Party Here Yesterday Enroute To Vancouver To Enlist-Norwegian Out To Get Hitler

"Yes, I want to get overseas as far and as fast as I can. I want to get even with the man (and the description was not as complimentary as that) who killed my sister and her four year old baby girl." So said Walter Erickson, one THITTO of a party of eleven Dawson men who were in Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon aboard the steamer Princess Norah enroute to Vancouver to enlist in the Canadian Active Service Force. One was Norwegian born, one Swedish, one French and the rest Canadian born—one in Dawson.

Mr. Erickson told how he had learned indirectly of the fate that With at least three teams in had befallen his sister and her each league, schedules for league child.
