Canadian Relations With Japan . . .

Canada is at war with Germany and Italy and now we find Japan allying herself with these two countries with a threat to war against us if any third party comes in against the Axis powers. Under these circumstances it seems as if our government should consider revising our relations with Japan.

During the past few months we have been buying constantly increasing quantities of manufactured goods from Japan while the purchases from British countries have been steadily decreasing. Products of our mines suitable for war materials have been going to Japan. In view of the new situation created by the treaty it might be wise to cut off the war materials and to raise the duties on imports from Japan. We are not sufficiently well informed to know what other factors may enter into the situation but it does seem as if we are putting life into a country that is now definitely lined up with the enemy.

The United States government has recently taken action to cut off supplies going to Japan and has loaned money to China. We seem to be encouraging Japan in her aggressive policy. We think the people of Canada should be better informed by the government as to why we do this.

Ready for Business . . .

Some of the destroyers recently purchased from the United States in exchange for sites for naval bases are now in commission and ready for action. They will be particularly useful in running down German and Italian submarines and in helping to convoy merchant ships to and from the British Isles. Fifteen destroyers now are worth five times as much as the same number at any other time.

A Vigorous Timely Message . . .

"President Klinck struck just the right note in addressing the University of British Columbia students," says the Vancouver News-Herald. "He promised no golden future, 'no brave new world,' but called them to dedicate themselves to a season of sacrifice in preparation for a life which will call for the best qualities of personal initiative, determination and courage.

"He asked them to distinguish between a standard of living and a standard of indulgence. He declared his confidence in their ability to face the issue.

"Frankly, youth does not prepare itself today for a rosy future. Young men and young women may not only be asked to endure just a few years of sacrifice but perhaps a lifetime of self-denial. Theirs is the mighty task of rebuilding a shattered world—a world destroyed by selfishness and self-indulgence and by a denial of fundamental moral values.

"The university serves by training them for this magnificent task; and youth serves by seriously preparing for the duties about to be thrust upon it."

Enlisting in God's Service

Rev. H. G. Funston Delivers Address Appropriate To Presbyterian Church Rally

Courage, initiative, cheerfulness and hardiness are required of those who would enlist in God's army just as these attributes are needed on the part of those who would serve in the earthly King's army declared Rev. H. G. Funston in his morning sermon at First Presbyterian Church yesterday. The pastor stressed the need for leadership and training for God's service. The subject was "Enlisting for Service" and it was a special Rally Day service in which the Sunday School joined with the congregation.

JR. SOCCER UNDER WAY

Beta Needed But One Goal on Saturday to Defeat Alpha

Scoring the only goal of the game, Beta defeated Alpha on Saturday afternoon when the Inter-House High School Football League resumed play for the season. The standard of play augured well for what may follow as the season advances. Both teams worked hard and it was a good, close contest.

Alpha had the benefit of a fairly strong wind at the first half but could not get through the strong Beta defence. Beta won the game when Bartlett made a fine shot on a pass from Leverett. Kadonaga and Stellberg were the pick of the forwards for Alpha while Bartlett and Cleone were the best for Beta. The two goalies—Thomas for Beta and Denning for Alpha—also played well.

Lining-up were:

Alpha — Thomas, Teng, L. Hankinson, J. Hougan, Blake, King, Leverett, Cleone, Sheddon, Bartlett, Parks. (Spares, Sakamoto and Clark.)

Beta—Denning, Franks, Donald, D. McLachlan, S. Nagami, J. Thompson, O. Stemberg, A. Anderson, F. Leland and Kadonaga. (Spare, Morgan.)

Walter Ferguson was referee and Holtby and Hinoy, linesmen.
