Winding Up Practices For Important Series With Ocean Falls This Week For District Title

The Standard Oilers, who will defend their Northern British Columbia championship against Ocean Falls this week are holding final practices tonight and tomorrow night in preparation for what they expect will be their toughest series since they organized.

Tonight's practice will constitute thorough drills and floor work while tomorrow night the boys will just have a light shooting practice.

Orders have been issued for an "Early to Bed, Early to Rise" program for the next few days since the locals must have a decided edge in the play here as they may be forced to play short-handed at the Falls. As things stand at the moment it looks as though three or four of the regulars may not be able to travel south to carry on where they leave off here. One thing certain is that Prince Rupert will be ably represented as there are none on the squad impaired by injuries.

SPORT CHAT

The Scots are a hardy race and especially so are the men in the Army. These boys just can't stand a bit of peace and quiet. They're at it again with a battle royal to be held in the Moose Hall Tuesday night. The chief drawback for the fight game at first was the lack of a proper covering for the ring. Not to be daunted in their efforts to cover and Victoria.

give the people of Prince Rupert some real, lively entertainment. The boys made a makeshift that was a bit too hard on their skins. Now the Army, at quite a bit of expense, has purchased a regulation ring cover. With no matburns to worry them this time they will be sure to get out to win their wrestling and boxing laurels.

Mrs. Harry Calderwood returned to the city on the Catala last night from a brief trip to Vancouver to cover and Victoria.
