EARL GREY'S RIFLES NOW HAVE FULL DRUM AND BUGLE BAND

COMMANDING OFFICER CAPTAIN STORK EXPECTS THAT ON THE ARRIVAL OF THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT THE REGIMENT WILL DO CREDIT TO PRINCE RUPERT.

Earl Grey's Rifles today possess the full complement of drums and bugles for a first class regimental drum and bugle band. The instruments have all arrived, announces Captain Fred Stork, and the regiment is in splendid training. There is room for one of two more men who have had some experience in a bugle band, and if such men will come up to Captain Stork for enrolment they can be supplied with bugles at once.

In view of the forthcoming visit to Prince Rupert this summer of the Duke of Connaught, it is anticipated that the regiment will attain a greater standard of efficiency than ever before in order to do credit to the city.

Lieutenant S. P. McMordie, who has recently completed his term of special training in military efficiency at the military training school, Victoria, has now received his diploma as a fully qualified lieutenant. It has been arranged that Earl Grey's Rifles shall hold their annual church parade on Sunday, 14th inst., to St. Andrew's Church.

HOME RULE BILL FOR SCOTLAND

Local Parliament to Control All Finances Except Customs—Executive Power Still Vested in Crown Through Privy Council.

London, March 29.—Home rule for Scotland is the object of a bill introduced by Dr. Chappel, Liberal member for Stirlingshire, who said that the bill was designed to establish a Scottish parliament to deal with matters exclusively relating to Scotland, thus relieving the Imperial parliament of much business. It is proposed to vest the executive power in the Crown, the administration being carried on by a committee of the Scottish privy council responsible to the Scottish parliament to impose taxes other than customs and excise. Arrangements are provided by the bill for the adjustment of financial arrangements between the Scottish parliament and Imperial parliament. The supreme power and control of Imperial parliament is expressly reserved.

RESENTS THAT DOG QUESTION

Mrs. Carl Will Appeal the Houn' Dog Case Dismissed Yesterday by Magistrate Carss—Refers to Fire Alarm Bylaw.

"I intend to appeal the case regarding the shooting of my dog for alleged chicken hunting," said Mrs. Carl yesterday after Magistrate Carss had dismissed the case. "I consider that the dog was shot without any sufficient cause whatever, and that when I had paid the city its license fee I was entitled to have proper protection for the dog. It was a valuable animal, its mate was sold for $700 in the States, and I was to have sent it there to be trained. I have a witness to show that the dog was really shot in mistake for another. I am told that when the point regarding the breach of the city bylaw against the reckless use of fire arms in the streets was dismissed as of no account by the City Solicitor himself, and intend to press this matter sharply, too, as the shots were fired in a lane in a populous part of the city."
