"There'll Always be an England" in Full Dress Rehearsal Yesterday

A full dress rehearsal of "There'll Always be an England," the concert to be presented under the auspices of the local Canadian Legion next Sunday night, was held yesterday. Those who witnessed the rehearsal were able to testify that this is going to be one of the finest entertainments ever presented in Prince Rupert. A great deal of the talent is entirely new to Prince Rupert! audiences and some of it is excellent indeed. Indications are that there will be a sell-out house. The performance is in aid of the Red

Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, arrived in port at midnight last night from the south, sailing a couple of hours later for Stewart and other northern points, whence she will return here tomorrow afternoon southbound.

A Sturdy Healthy Baby

"I first began to use Pacific Milk exclusively when my baby boy arrived," writes Mrs. S. "He had a bad start in life owing to a faulty heart but his appetite pulled him through. We gave him Pacific Milk. Now at four years he is a sturdy youngster."
