TERRACE

Terrace Visit Enjoyed Altho' There Was Rain

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Norrington of Prince Rupert have been spending a short holiday at Terrace as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nigel Sherwood.

Mrs. J. C. A. Long of Williams Lake spent the week-end in Terrace as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nash.

Advertising is an investment

TERRACE, July 3:—Dominion Day proved somewhat disappointing as regards the weather. Light rain fell at intervals throughout the day and, although this caused the cancellation of a tennis tourney which had been arranged, it did not prevent the baseball players from putting on a game in the Municipal Park.

Some 350 excursionists arrived on the special train from Prince Rupert and, in spite of the rain, they appeared to enjoy the outing. The Oddfellows' Hall was overcrowded when dancing began at 8 p.m. Frank Gavan and his orchestra provided the music.

THE TOMBSTONE EPITAPH

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., July 3: (CP)—The old home of Tombstone's weekly newspaper, The Epitaph, has been torn down. The two-storey adobe building was completed in the 1880's but the Epitaph has been printed in more modern quarters since 1926.

Gas Association Is In Session

JASPER PARK, July 3.—Drawing delegates from numerous cities of United States and Canada, the thirty-third annual convention of the Canadian Gas Association opened here yesterday. At the official gathering of the Canadian body were members of the Pacific Coast Gas Association, the total attendance at the joint conference reaching 200. Presiding over business sessions, which will conclude Friday, are Julian Garrett of Edmonton, president of the Dominion organization, and A. E. Holloway of San Diego, California, president of the Pacific Coast association. Other executives include J. B. McNary of Hamilton and G. W. Allen of Toronto, and R. A. Hornby, D. G. Martin and Clifford Johnstone, all of San Francisco, California.
