SEA CADETS IN TRIBUTE

Took Active Part In Connection With Funeral Of George Weir This Afternoon

Members of the local Sea Cadets under Lieut. Alex Mitchell and Petty Officer Instructor George Hughes, mustered to the number of about forty this afternoon for the funeral of one of their number, George Weir, who was the victim of a tragic drowning fatality at Mill Bay, Naas River, at the end of last week. There was a requiem guard of Cadets at St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral prior to the funeral service and Cadets also acted as honorary pallbearers as well as participating in the procession from the Cathedral to Fairview Cemetery. Rev. Canon W. F. Rushbrook was the officiating clergyman.

The honorary pallbearers and members of the requiem guard were Cadets Edward Dawes, Joe Davies, Richard Moore, Jack Eastwood, Hugh Mackenzie and Sidney Alexander. Warrant Officers William Baker and Gordon Calderwood and Acting Warrant Officer William Hunter also took part in connection with procession arrangements.

The active pallbearers were Norman Hebb, Robert Capstick, Ray Hougan, Robert Leslie, Terry Grimble and Donald Fitch.
