Help the creator of the Dumbells to MAKE OUR SOLDIERS LAUGH

1916! A ruined barn or hall in France ... packed with Canadian troops. On the crude stage the lights go on. Scene follows scene . . . the audience rocks with laughter. Strange happiness comes to lonely hearts. 'Tis like a breath from home, this evening of gaiety amid war's tragedy.

Concert parties such as those which played to capacity houses behind the lines in France during the last war, are essential again to the morale of the Canadian troops. The task of organizing and training such concert parties has been undertaken by the Canadian Legion War Services. Capt. "Mert" Plunkett, organizer of "The Dumbells," who is in charge of this work, is now in England organizing and training the men who will entertain our troops in England and France.

WY - A A

The Legion needs your help to finance this great work, to purchase costumes and equipment for these parties. Other vital needs of the troops which the Legion has undertaken to supply are as follows:

Home-like Facilities for Our Men Overseas

The Legion is establishing leave centre hostels in England and France. Here the men will be provided with beds and meals at nominal cost. Recreation and reading rooms will be available free of charge. Travel bureaux will be operated to assist men on leave.

Personal Services

Through its representatives in the field and its 1100 branches all over Canada, the Legion will help the men on service in the solution of worrying problems of a personal or business nature.

Educational and Vocational Training

In collaboration with the Canadian Association for Adult Education, an organization with a distinguished record, the Legion has undertaken a plan whereby Canadians on service may continue their training to fit them to take their places successfully in civil life after the war.

HELP WIN THE WAR!

Here is how you can do your bit. Your contribution to the Legion drive for $500,000 will help to keep up the morale of our men and will contribute to the happiness, comfort and future success of our boys overseas. Give to the Legion's new cause - today!
