EDITORIAL

WHAT DID YOU ACCOMPLISH?

Now that the Christmas and New Year holiday season is past history and we are looking forward to the activities of 1940, it may be well just to turn our minds backward and review the accomplishments of 1939. For some there will be no accomplishments except a carrying on.

Some people are not satisfied unless they have accomplished something outside of their regular work. Some will have been seeking religious experiences, others will have interested themselves in social or political work. A few possibly will have striven for self mastery, for improvement of their own physical condition by means of physical exercises, including breathing exercises, walking, improved reading and thinking, control of the appetites, better choice of companions, refusal to keep up with the Joneses.

Only a few people can have accomplished great or spectacular things such as discoveries, inventions, creations, construction, but every person can so act as to end the year with a feeling of satisfaction. We are now nearly half way through the first month of 1940 and it is time we at least laid plans for the coming year. Why not a garden or an improved garden?

TRAVEL BUREAU PUBLICATION

The Travel Bureau of the British Columbia government has just issued a very attractive leaflet for distribution in the United States designed to counteract the subversive elements in that country that are trying to steer tourists away from Canada. It emphasizes the saving of ten per cent on American money expended in Canada and the fact that there is no red tape at the border, no passports needed, and other advantages from a holiday seekers' point of view. The booklet is nicely illustrated and is very timely.

OUR CONGRATULATIONS

Mayne D. Hamilton has just retired from the position of superintendent of Pacific Coast branches of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. The Victoria Times has voiced appreciation of his work in which we heartily join as follows:

"Business men all over this province as well as a host of friends and acquaintances will wish Mayne D. Hamilton many years of health and contentment as he retires from the important position of superintendent of Pacific Coast branches of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. To the banking profession he has given the best years of his life—44 of them, and 15 in the highly-responsible and exacting job he will now hand on to a successor.

Vancouver has good reason to say especially nice things about Mr. Hamilton, to be gratified to know that in his new leisure he will continue his activities in that city, and that his cheery smile and sound common sense will still bear witness to an engaging personality and an alert mind. As an executive on the Vancouver Board of Trade, an unselfish worker in all good causes, Mayne D. Hamilton has done well. He is a valued citizen of this province.
