HONORED BY PARTY

Some fifty friends gathered Sunday night at a delightful farewell dinner party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Millar who are leaving the city this Friday night to take up residence in Victoria. The affair took place in the Boston Cafe banquet hall and the feature of the proceedings was the presentation by Thomas McClymont, on behalf of those assembled, to Mr. and Mrs. Millar of a handsome fountain pen and a beautiful china cake dish. Suitable sentiments were expressed by Mr. McClymont and Mr. Millar responded.

Community singing, with S. C. Thomson and Mrs. C. E. Cullin presiding at the piano, and playing of games wound up the evening.

RED CROSS WEEK HERE

Prince Rupert Women Are Given Chance To Help British Air Raid Sufferers

The local Red Cross work-room has just received a large consignment of goods to be used in most part to make garments for air-raid victims in Great Britain. Thus an opportunity is presented to the women of Prince Rupert to do something practical to help the victims of Nazism.

A shipment of finished articles that went forward to the provincial Red Cross warehouse on Friday of last week had 82 articles for these air-raid victims. There were garments for women, children and infants. To date 511 such articles have been sent out from the local Red Cross branch and its affiliated units.

Included in this shipment were the first surgical supplies made locally. These comprised pads of various sizes, compresses, wipes and sponges—4460 items in all. In addition to the relief garments and surgical supplies, the shipment contained 158 knitted articles for hospital supplies.

The grand total of the work done by the Prince Rupert Red Cross branch and its affiliated units to date is 7909 items.

In view of the opening of the Red Cross campaign today, those who are interested in seeing for themselves how part of the money raised in those campaigns is expended may do so by calling at the workrooms and observing the work being done there.
