Memory of Burns Honored At Ocean Falls Gathering

OCEAN FALLS, Feb. 1: - The an braual canquet of the Burne Social. Club of Ocean Falls was held last Wednesday night. One hundred and sixty diners sat lown to tables decorated with leather and laden with Scottish! are. Many wore full Scotch regalia, including the haggis-bearer, Mr. Appleby; the piper, John Gibson, and William Stuart, who gave the address to the haggis, Mrs. Greenhill said the old Selkirk Grace and the diners fell to.

'ine guest speaker, Ernest Goddard, gave the toast to the Immortal Memory, taking as his keynote, Burns the Humanitarian." Mr. Beattie's toast to Canada and R. Young's equally humorous reply were thoroughly enjoyed by the diners. Mrs. McLeod gave the toast to Scotland, suitably asknowledged by Mr. Kinnaird. Mr. Haslett toastd The Lassies and Mrs. Appleby replied. Finally Mr. Sweeney toasted the guests and Mr. Oxenbury replied. Ira McAllister proposed a vote of thanks to those who helped to make the occasion the most successful on record.

The speeches were interspersed with a program arranged by Miss Simpson who also acted as accompanist. A quartette sang Scotch songs and Mr. Deans gave two solos. Miss Lorraine Grant's "Whistle and 11.00 p.m I'll Come to You" set several young men whistling but without apparent 12:30 noon results to date. WARTIME DRAMA ON THE HIGH SEAS AS FREIGHTER SEARCHED

Quick and efficient was the work of the search of the search party from a British destroyer which lopped and boarded the American freighter West Cusseta to make certain that she was really an American vessel. The entire procedure took only 19 minutes from the time the West Cusseta was ordered to "Heave To!" A British naval officer, inn shorts, is shown (upper left) descending from the bridge of the West Cusseta, the last of the boarding party to leave the ship, while an English tar is shown (upper right) signalling the destroyer that "All's O. K." The destroyer is shown (bottom) as seen from the deck of the West Cusseta.
