

Weather Forecast

Prince Rupert—Fresh to strong northwest wind... Part cloudy and moderately cool

The Daily News

NORTHERN AND CENTRAL BRITISH COLUMBIA'S NEWSPAPER

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1940.

Tomorrow's Tides

Table with 2 columns: Time and Tides. High 8:50 a.m. 18.0 ft., 21:00 p.m. 16.7 ft. Low 1:52 a.m. 7.4 ft., 14:51 p.m. 9.1 ft.

Air Attacks Become More Intense

CHURCH IN LONDON IS BOMB HIT

Metropolis Has Its Longest Night Raid of War But Survey Shows Damage Not Extremely Heavy

LONDON, Nov. 7: (CP)—One of the most famous churches in London was hit by a high explosive bomb during last night's longest raid of the war on London.

London sirens howled again at noon today and the raiders dodged through clouds to scatter bombs on the London area.

After the all clear, the Air Ministry announced that five German planes had been shot down.

Last night's raids were widespread but an early morning check-up showed that damage was comparatively light.

A strange whine of motors indicated that Italian planes were being used in last night's attack on London.

LABOR MAY BE UNITED

Possibility of Reconciliation Between C.I.O. and A.E.L. Seen

NEW YORK, November 7—Reconciliation of the warring Labor organizations—the Congress of Industrial Organization and American Federation of Labor—is seen as a possible sequel of the presidential election.

GALLABAT RE-TAKEN

British Troops Win Back Point in Sudan Which Italians Had Captured Some Time Ago

CAIRO, Nov. 7: (CP)—British troops have recaptured Gallabat on the Sudanese-Ethiopian border from the Italians, British general headquarters announce.

PARLIAMENT OPEN TODAY

Formalities at Ottawa Reduced To Minimum—Governor Presents Speech

OTTAWA, November 7 (Canadian Press)—Devoted entirely of the usual peacetime pageantry, the session of Parliament was opened today by the Governor General of Canada, the Earl of Athlone.

M. J. Coldwell has taken over the duties of Co-operative Commonwealth Federation leader, announcing he would press for more information regarding the war effort.

Japanese Withdraw To Coast

SHANGHAI, Nov. 7.—Japanese forces continue their withdrawal from many important central China points, leaving them in flames. The Japanese, it is said are planning to evacuate China except a strip forty miles from the coast.

Bulletins

MORE DESTROYERS WASHINGTON—The possibility of United States making further destroyers available for Great Britain is seen as well as merchant ships to replace those lost in the war is seen as one of the results of the United States election in which the policy of aid by this country is implied to have been endorsed by the people.

BLACK DAY FOR REICH LONDON—Commenting on the re-election of President Roosevelt of the United States, Lord Beaverbrook's Evening Standard says that it was "the blackest day Berlin has had since the war began."

FORD GETS CONTRACT DETROIT—The Ford Motor Co. is awarded a contract for 4000 airplane engines, to cost $122,000,000, under the defence construction program.

CAPT. LATTA DIES LONDON—Capt. R. G. Latta, who retired in 1938 as master of the Empress of Britain, died at his home in Cheshire yesterday.

BALTIC SHIPS SEIZED LONDON—The British government has seized two dozen Estonian, Latvian and Lithuanian ships. Negotiations are on with Russia to ratify the taking over.

MINISTER RESIGNS BELGRADE—Because he believes that the government did not take a strong enough stand against the bombing by Italy of a Yugoslav town, the minister of war of Yugoslavia has resigned.

RUSSIA AND TURKEY ISEANBUL—Soviet Russia is reported to be withdrawing its forces from the Turkish frontier. A new trade agreement between Russia and Turkey is reported to be in process of negotiation.

ACTRESS CRITICALLY ILL HOLLYWOOD—Mary Boland, well known moving picture actress, was critically injured when her automobile collided with a station car yesterday. She sustained several broken ribs, a dislocated hip and gashes about the face.

HUNTERS ARE DROWNED RED DEER—Two Red Deer men hunting at Sylvan Lake near here, are believed to have been drowned.

DOG'S SHELTER LONDON, Nov. 7: (CP)—First brick for the first dog's air raid shelter was laid in Kensington Gardens by Sir Robert Gower M.P.

HIS LEAD INCREASED

Later Returns in United States Election Show Further Gains For Roosevelt

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The latest tabulation of returns from the United States Presidential election gives President Franklin D. Roosevelt thirty-nine of the forty-eight states, New Jersey and Michigan having moved with later results from the Willkie into the Roosevelt column.

The popular vote so far accounted for gives Roosevelt 25,694,747 and Willkie, 21,427,832. Incidentally, Willkie's popular vote is the largest ever obtained by a losing presidential candidate in the history of the country.

The Democrats have gained twelve seats in the House of Representatives, their total now being 264 whereas 218 are necessary for control. The Republicans have gained four seats in the Senate but the Democrats are still easily in control.

Regal Quarters For Slum Babes

War-time Mothers From London's East End Bear Children in Queen's Former Home

LONDON, Nov. 7: (CP)—Poor mothers from London's east end are giving birth to babes in regal surroundings.

Evacuated from their bomb-shattered tenement areas, the women are sent to a big estate, for many years a residence of the Queen's parents, the Earl and the late Countess of Strathmore.

Penniless mothers now sit knitting in the room where the Queen used to sleep and also in the King's former bedroom which has been turned into a large ward.

The estate, set amid beautiful surroundings, was turned over to the London Hospital to be used as an emergency house for expectant mothers.

British House Sits Secretly

Confidential Report on War Presented by Premier Churchill

LONDON, Nov. 7: (CP)—The House of Commons was in secret session yesterday to receive a confidential report from Prime Minister Winston Churchill on the war. No announcement was made.

TRAINING FINISHED

First Batch of 25,000 Trainees Out Of Camps Today

OTTAWA, Nov. 7: (CP)—Twenty-five thousand young Canadians today completed a thirty-day period of training under the national service plan, leaving 39 camps in Canada to return to their jobs. A considerable number were, however, so enthusiastic that they decided to volunteer for the active service including the Royal Canadian Air Force.

The second batch of trainees will go into camp on November 22.

POUND STERLING

NEW YORK, November 7.—The British pound sterling was up at $4.04 yesterday.

War News

R.A.F. IS BUSY LONDON—The Royal Air Force active last night bombing military objectives in the suburbs of Berlin, elsewhere in the Reich, in German occupied territory as well as channel points.

LONDON HEAVILY ATTACKED

LONDON—London was last night bombed harder and more generally by Nazi aircraft than for many nights. Fire fighters were kept on the jump and it was a long alarm. There were also intensive attacks on other parts of the country.

BRINDISI PUNISHED

CAIRO—British bombers have made a punishing raid on Brindisi, vital port and naval base at the heel of the Italian boot, the Royal Air Force announces. Brindisi is an important base of embarkation for Albania.

BELGIANS CALLED UP

MONTREAL—All Belgians in Canada between 16 and 35 years of age have been required to report for possible military service. Between 19 and 25 military service is compulsory. Others may volunteer.

DOVER IS POUNDED

DOVER—German Big Bertha guns, from across the Channel, again pounded the Dover area today. They are believed to have been aiming at a convoy. Berlin claimed that one ship had been sunk and was believed to be sinking.

FOLLOWING KING

LIVERPOOL—Not long after the King and Queen had paid a visit, the Merseyside shipbuilding area was bombed by German airmen yesterday.

Berlin And Rome Not Surprised

Results of United States National Election are Received With Indifference

BERLIN, Nov. 7: (CP)—Berlin and Rome officialdom and press received with indifference the results of the presidential election. The outcome was no surprise was about all the comment that could be heard.

President Lays Cornerstone Of New Post Office

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—President D. Roosevelt laid the cornerstone of a new post office in his home town of Hyde Park yesterday.

NEW YORK COPPER

NEW YORK, November 7—Copper prices were off .08c. to .15c. yesterday with December closing at 11.25c. per pound.

Yukoners For War Service

Aboard the steamer Princess Norah, which is in port this afternoon, are nine Yukoners going through to Vancouver. They are all volunteers for war service with the Canadian Active Service Force.

CALL FOR OVERSEAS

One Thousand Men Sought For Radio Service

OTTAWA, November 7 (Canadian Press)—The Royal Canadian Air Force yesterday received the call for 1000 volunteers for ground radio mechanics of the Royal Canadian Air Force. The limit has been raised from 45 to 50 years. Recruits must be physically fit but need not have perfect eyesight. They may be dispatched overseas within thirty days to complete training.

SHIPMENT OF FOXES

Animals to Value of $100,000 Being Transferred

MONCTON, Nov. 7.—A small fortune in platinum foxes left Moncton yesterday in a Canadian National Express car for fur farms in the provinces of Ontario and Alberta. The consignment of live platinum foxes, which is valued at over $100,000, is from the Colpitts ranches at Salisbury, New Brunswick, on which they were bred and raised. These platinum foxes, it is understood, will be crossed with the so-called white face or ring-necked foxes. The Colpitts ranches, one of the most extensive fox breeding organizations in the world, claim to have 95 per cent of Canada's platinum foxes.

British To Bomb Rome

LONDON, Nov. 7: (CP)—Richard Austin Butler, Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, told the House of Commons today that Great Britain must "reserve full liberty of action in regard to Rome" since Italian fliers have now bombed London.

Roosevelt Gets Big Reception

Welcomed Back in Washington Today Following Election

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 7.—President Franklin D. Roosevelt returned to Washington today from Hyde Park where he spent the election period. He was given a great reception in celebration of his victory. There was a triumphal procession down Pennsylvania Avenue which was lined with spectators.

STOCK MART HAS BREAK

Reacts Sharply to Result of United States Election

NEW YORK, November 7—The New York stock market reacted to the result of the presidential election yesterday with the widest break since spring. It was taken as an indication of disappointment at the defeat of Wendell Willkie whom big business had favored. The downward movement appeared to be checked in early trading today with recovery looming in most issues. The day's turnover was 1,310,000 shares. The industrial average at closing was 131.98, off 3.53; rails, 28.87, down 1.29; utilities, 21.51, down 1.37.

Germans Are Advised To Quit Greece

BELGRADE, Nov. 7: (CP)—Trustworthy advices said today that all Germans in Greece have been advised by German diplomatic officials to leave the country at once. The move is interpreted as indicating the possibility that Germany foresees no early fulfilment of expressed hope for a quick settlement of the Italo-Greek conflict and that Germany may be obliged to enter the fight there to help the wavering Italians.

NO CHANGE IN POLICY

Neutrality and Preparedness To Still Be Keystones for Soviet Russia

MOSCOW, November 7—Soviet Russia will continue the policy of neutrality in the war with constant military preparedness as a precaution against any eventualities. It was authoritatively stated last night on the eve of a Communist anniversary celebration.

SHELLING KORITZA

Greeks Keep Up Attack On Italian Base—Only Fascist Air Force Is Feared

ATHENS, Nov. 7.—The Greeks are still shelling the Italian base city of Koritza in Albania. Meantime, the Italians claim further advances beyond the Kalamas River, fifteen miles across the frontier in Greece. Athens is reported to have advised London that, if Great Britain can hold off the Italian air force, Greece will have no difficulty in defeating Italy.

Roosevelt Gets Big Reception

Welcomed Back in Washington Today Following Election

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 7.—President Franklin D. Roosevelt returned to Washington today from Hyde Park where he spent the election period. He was given a great reception in celebration of his victory. There was a triumphal procession down Pennsylvania Avenue which was lined with spectators.

STOCK MART HAS BREAK

Reacts Sharply to Result of United States Election

NEW YORK, November 7—The New York stock market reacted to the result of the presidential election yesterday with the widest break since spring. It was taken as an indication of disappointment at the defeat of Wendell Willkie whom big business had favored. The downward movement appeared to be checked in early trading today with recovery looming in most issues. The day's turnover was 1,310,000 shares. The industrial average at closing was 131.98, off 3.53; rails, 28.87, down 1.29; utilities, 21.51, down 1.37.

POUNDRING GERMANY

Long Range British Warplanes Reach as Far as Berlin With Many Other Points Visited As Well

LONDON, Nov. 7: (CP)—Long range British war planes bombed the suburbs of Berlin and a railway junction northwest of the German capital during the night, the Air Ministry announced today. Attacks were also made on synthetic oil plants at Leuna and Hamburg, factories near Dusseldorf, the inland port of Duisburg and railway yards and junctions elsewhere. Other squadrons bombed long range German gun-emplacements at Cap Gris Nez on the French coast.

The Berlin suburb attacked was identified as Spandau.

In daylight attacks yesterday the British bombers poured oil refineries at Salzbergen, starting great fires.

Three Degrees Of Frost Recorded

To the Most of Prince Rupert People, However, it seemed Colder Owing to Chilly Wind

The minimum thermometer reading for last night, as officially recorded at the Digby Island meteorological station, was 29 above. Owing to the strong north wind, it seemed to the most of local people to be a good deal colder than that. The frost has cut down most of the dahlias and more delicate plants in Prince Rupert gardens.

Paul Satko Here Again

Hit of "Ark of Juneau" Fame Aboard Coasting Steamer Enroute to Seattle

Paul Satko, who during the past summer went north from Seattle to Juneau aboard his crude homemade boat "Ark of Juneau" with his wife and family on board, is here again this afternoon travelling south aboard the steamer Princess Norah.

Paderewski In United States

Will Undertake Some Form of War Work, Says Noted Pianist

NEW YORK, November 7 (Canadian Press)—Ignace Jan Paderewski, noted pianist and former Premier of Poland, arrived in the United States from Lisbon. He will undertake some form of war work, Paderewski said.

VICTORIA NEW HEADQUARTERS

Pacific Coast Command of Canadian Army to be Based There

VANCOUVER, Nov. 7: (CP)—Major General H. D. G. Crerar, chief of Canadian staff, in Vancouver in the course of a tour of Pacific Coast defenses, announced yesterday that Victoria will be headquarters of the new Pacific Coast command which includes the provinces of British Columbia and Alberta. Part of the Fourth Division is already in the area, said Crerar.

Big Business Wonders What Will Be Next

NEW YORK, Nov. 7: (CP)—The financial and business world looks now that the election is over, for increased defence activity and expenditure on arms with drastic measures to raise the needed billions of dollars.