PRINCE GEORGE

Pan American Airways has ordered the start of work on the installation of three powerful radio transmitters and receivers and other apparatus at the Prince George airfield for use in connection with the company's commercial air service through here to the north. The work will be rushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

W. J. Bown, pioneer ferryman at Finmore, is in hospital here receiving medical treatment for a broken leg sustained while hauling out the ferry boat for the winter. An identical accident under similar circumstances was sustained by Mr. Bown two years ago.

Remembrance Day was observed in Prince George with a parade and service in the morning, the speakers being Major R. L. Gale and Dr. R. W. Alward. In the evening the annual Armistice Dance was held in Princess ballroom.

A. P. Anderson of Prince George has been awarded the contract for the construction of the hospital at Vanderhoof for the Sisters of Charity of Providence. The contract figure of Mr. Anderson was $35,222 not including plumbing, heating and wiring.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Forrester visited McBride over the Armistice week-end holiday.

left last week for Oshawa, Ontario, where they will spend the winter.

Scandinavians and their friends staged an enjoyable party in Andersen's Hall Saturday night. There was a splendid program of instrumental and vocal music and delicious refreshments were served. Proceeds will be used for the sending of Christmas Cheer to the "Little Norway" military camp in Toronto.

Weather is now more moderate in this district after the most severe cold snap so early in the season which had been experienced in thirteen years.

Miss Marguerite Coll, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Coll, and Bruce Elwin Wold, only son of Mrs. J. Wold, were united in marriage at Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church here last Monday afternoon by Rev. Father Gilhooley. Miss June Ball and Lyman Miller attended the couple. A wedding supper followed in Shasta Cafe. The couple will reside at Pinchi Lake where the groom is in employ of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McAuley were in Vancouver Sunday for the wedding of Miss Helen Margaret McAuley to Archibald Walker, second son of Capt. A. Walker of North Vancouver. The couple will reside in Victoria until the groom is transferred East in the service of the Canadian Army Medical Corps.

Inspector Ernest Gammon, provincial police, Prince Rupert, after spending a few days in town, left here last Wednesday by airplane on an inspection trip to detachments in the Peace River Block.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Valde and family left at the week-end for Burns Lake to take up residence, Mr. Valde having been appointed to the position of roadmaster for Canadian National Railways there.

PLAYS IN REHEARSAL

Prince Rupert Little Theatre Body Is Active

With one three-act play already in rehearsal and a one-act play about ready for presentation, the Prince Rupert Little Theatre has been active since its inception six weeks ago. From the handful of organizers who attended the first meeting the group has now grown to a large number of talented and enthusiastic workers.

Next week on November 27 a social evening is to be spent at the Cathedral Hall to which members and prospective members and all those interested will be invited. The presentation of the one-act play is scheduled for that evening as part of the entertainment.

On December 4 and 5 the three act play "Her Husband's Second Wife" will be staged for the public at the Booth Memorial High School Auditorium. Under the direction of Charles Edkins, who has had many years experience on the stage and has been a drama festival adjudicator for several seasons, the cast is making excellent progress. As an opening appearance of the club no better production could have been chosen.

Mrs. N. E. Arnold, well-known in dramatic circles in the past, is president of the organization and is aided by an excellent executive. Mrs. T. A. McWaters is secretary-treasurer. Other officers include: Honorary President, Honorable J. M. Weir. Honorary Vice-President, Major L. Bullock-Webster. Vice-President, D. McN. Lowe. Reading Committee—Mrs. G. R. S. Blackaby, Mrs. Yorston, Mrs. Thompson and John Good. Casting Committee—Mrs. F. N. Good, Chas. Edkins, Mrs. Currie, Mrs. P. M. Ray. Membership—Miss Noreen Gimson, Mrs. R. E. Mortimer and Miss Marion MacLachlan. Entertainment—Mrs. Yorston, Mrs. E. B. Baker, Miss Olive Kyle, Miss Anne Winslow, Miss Faith King and Miss Coral Rogers.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findley, arrived in port at 12:30 noon today from Stewart and other northern points and sailed at 1:30 p.m. for the south.
