As one who was not a Canaas an inducement for all to enter dian he had felt it was not right for him to express himself in regard to this but, now that President Franklin D. Roosevelt had done so and he felt sure that 99 percent of the people of the United States were of a somewhat that he was heart and soul for the things that the British fought for and he hoped they would come out victorious. He felt it a privilege to help out those causes which were connected with the war.

Using a map to illustrate his points Mr. Myrwang pictured the fjords leading to the city and the harbor on which it is located. It was toward the end of the last race on Tuesdays train enroute ecntury that the rich iron mines of Sweden were discovered. As neither the Norwegian or Swedish governments felt they could build the the railway necessary to carry the ore to the open harbor of Narvik. an Englishman living near there suggested they go to London for the money and this was done. A company was formed known as the North Europe Railway Company Ltd. with a supposed capital; of 54,000,000 kroner which secured concessions from the two countries concerned and the railway was built to the nearest ore deposit. The ore was found to oe very rich, seventy percent pure

> The company then decided to ask for a further concession including the sole right to the ore in the region covered by the railway but there were objections and the company became bankrupt! Four years later it was taken over; had been improved until it had by the governments concerned and three tracks, was operated electri was completed and had been op- cally and each day twenty trains erated by them since.
