Plans were of braves will be here this Saturday night to take on a likewise younger Prince Rupert generation in what promises to be a lively tussle. Old timers can recall many battles between Simpson and Rupert at the same old Exhibition Hall when Paul Brentzen, Bob Sankey and the rest used to make things look rather sick for the locals. Of course, the local Savoys and their supporters are confident of victory on this occasion. At one time Port butcher with a scant 126 average, Simpson used to bring along a party of forty to fifty supporters feat more rare than a 300 game. but, in this regard, Simpson has more recently been letting its banner fall back. Possibly, they wil do better on this occasion.
