Presentation By Little Theatre

Playlet and Musical Program Last Night in St. Andrew's Cathedral Hall

The local Little Theatre group had its first presentation in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral Hall last night. A one-act playlet, "French Before Breakfast," was put on with Mrs. F. N. Good as director and a cast consisting of Charles Edkins, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Kerr, Lieut. B. Johnston, Mrs. N. E. Arnold, Mis. W. Thompson and Mrs. T. Yorston. Acting as prompter was Miss Noreen Gibson.

There was also a musical program including violin solos by Master Billy Jacowenik and Miss Nancy Owens and piano solos by Miss Jean Nelson and Miss Ruth Nelson. Accompanist for the violin solos was Mrs. Charles Anderson.

D. McN. Lowe was announcer and Mrs. Arnold, who is president of the Little Theatre, spoke briefly of the work of the movement. Mrs. Arnold outlined the plane and aims of the organization, mentioning that, with the growing membership, it was possible for the club to have three one-act plays under consideration and plans to be made for the presentation of the famous "Grumpy" in February. A brief word on the coming production at the Booth Memorial School audi-torium next Wednesday and Thursday was also given.

> Refreshments were served and the evening concluded with danc-

> The committee responsible for last night's success consisted of Mrs. A. Yorston, Mrs. E. B. Baker, Miss Olive Kyle, Miss Anne Winslow, Miss Faith King and Miss Coral Ragers. Nearly 100 were present.

Johnny Apollo." With Dorothy Lamour and Tyrone Power, Showing at Capitol Theatre

"Johnny Apollo," feature picture for tonight and tomorrow at the Capitol Theatre, is a thrilling drama with Tyrone Power and Dorothy Lamour in the leading roles. It tells with realism the story of the banker's son who turned from college man to monster when the father he idolized was sent to prison and his wealthy friends turned against him.

Thrilling climax is a daring jail break enisode including a terrific hand-to-hand battle between Tyrone Power and Lloyd Nolan.

Power plays the part of the banker's son. Miss Lamour is a sophisticated night club entertainer and Nolan her gangster boy friend. Edward Arnold is the banker father. Charley Granewin is cast as a tippling ex-judge turned underworld lawyer. Lionel Atwill is another important member of the cast.

Two tunesome song hits, "Dancing for Nickels and Dimes" and "This is the Reginning of the End" are sung by Miss Lamour.

VANDERHOOF

S. S. Phillips of the staff of the provincial Department of Agriculture is on a tour of the Vanderhoof district. His itinerary includes Woodpecker, Hixon, Pineview, Vanderhoof, Fort Fraser and Prairie-

About seven tons of field peas that were grown in the Vanderhoof district have been shipped to the British Columbia Pea Growers' Association at Armstrong.

Vanderhoof merchants have decided that they will not stock Japanese oranges this winter. They consider this would not be in the interests of Canada or British Columbia at the present time.

consul at Prince Rupert, intends to retire from the diplomatic service and resume the practice of law in West Virginia.

Ladies of the Catholic Altar Society at Anyox held a very successful old fashioned dance and supper. Tom McRostie was winner of the first prize in a grand raffle.
