FRANCE'S BRAVE FIGHT

It was with great regret we heard this morning that France had been forced to capitulate and had asked for an honorable peace. There was little else they could do. With superior armaments and outnumbered throughout, the French army put up a wonderfully brave defence. It took a terrible toll from the Germans, probably more of the attackers falling than of the defenders. Until right at the last the French lines were unbroken and the retreat orderly. They have won immortal fame by the wonderful retreat of the past week.

The only regret in connection with the whole war so far is the way in which the strength of the German force has been underrated. Great Britain has been as much a fault in this as other countries. She ought to have known ten years ago that Germany was arming for a great struggle and should have been prepared for it. She was told about it often enough but refused to believe what she was told.

However, it is useless to look back now. We have to look forward. The present crisis has to be met and doubtless is being met. The war will be continued with vigor and, according to Mr. Churchill, will be won against all odds. The British navy is still supreme and the British air force is being very materially strengthened.

United States Takes New Steps For Protection Of Life At Sea

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 17. (CP)—Flying lifeguards, trained for streamlined rescues at sea, are deploying along the coasts and waiting for tomorrow's desperate radio calls from ships in trouble. With travel between the continents being routed more and more through the ocean air, birdmen of the coastguard are facing new and challenging conditions in preparing for deep sea rescues. The oldtime breeches buoy and slow-moving cutter won't be enough. Help must come by air and it must come swiftly, heedless of weather conditions. Coastguard stations are being spotted along both coasts of the United States.

PICNIC WAS SUCCESSFUL

Fine Outing By Canadian Legion At Digby Island Enjoyed By Big Crowd

Favored with perfect weather the annual Canadian Legion picnic to Digby Island yesterday was a complete success. The fine weather brought out old and young and a large number of capacious boats handled the crowd of upwards of a thousand picnickers safely and expeditiously.

Boats loaned included the Nelson Brothers large packer Ribek, Captain J. H. Hartlin; the new boat Thelma S., Captain Ole Skog, which was the subject of much favorable comment; the Ingrid H., Captain Charles Lindquist; Armour Salvage Co's Daly, Captain Paul Armour; George Frizzell's Laura F. II, and F. A. MacCallum's Arranmore.

A full program of sports was run off in good time. Those in charge were Jack Preece, Neil Cameron, George Dawes, Jack Judge, Jack Mair, Gilbert Meeker, S. A. Cheeseman, J. Morris, L. Gagnon, W. H. Derry, Harry Breen and Jack Frew.

The canteen was in charge of Arthur Beale, Charles Ellison, W. J. Rance, C. L. Youngman, W. Howarth, Harry Breen, Henry Dickens and Sonny Dickens. The demand was so great that supplies became exhausted. General fatigue was looked after by Asa Allen, Jack Judge and a very capable party from the Irish Fusiliers—Sergeant Rothwell and Fusiliers Dick, Clen, Craig and Millar. This voluntary support from the troops was particularly gratifying.

In charge of tickets were George Dawes, S. A. Cheeseman, J. M. Walker and George Abbott.

The general chairmanship of the picnic was in the capable hands of the president, Jack Preece, who spared no pains to see that transportation was adequate and speedy, that every picniker was safely aboard and also found time to assist with the races. In the sports, the tug-of-war events were very popular while in the balloon race some were short of wind. It is reported that one balloon refused to expand—perhaps that was due to the pinhole caused by one helper. Neil Cameron's diving finish in the veteran's race was also a feature.

TENNIS IS IN FINALS

Busy Day Yesterday In Bringing Prince Rupert Club's Tournament Up To Last Stages

The Prince Rupert Tennis Club tournament proceeded with a busy and successful Sunday. Some close and exciting matches were run off and very fine tennis played to bring the tournament to its final stages.

In men's singles semi-final Fulton beat Borland, 7-5, 4-6, 8-6, after a long drawn out battle lasting some 2 1/2 hours. This evening at 6:30 Bellamy plays Norrington in the other semi-final bracket.

In men's doubles semi-final Lombie and Gwyer beat Mellin and Lelehs, 7-5, 5-7, 6-4. As the score indicates this was a long and well played match. The winners play Norrington and Borland in the final.

In mixed doubles semi-finals Borland and Tinker beat Gwyer and Mitchell, 6-3, 6-3. Norrington and Bepner beat Wilding and Lelehs, 6-1, 6-4. Final will be played 6:30 p.m. Tuesday.
