HORE-BELISHA RESIGNATION

The Hore-Belisha retirement discussion seems to have been a tempest in a teapot. Evidently the retiring minis er did not agree with other members of the cabinet of some matters of administration of his department. H had been imbued with one idea, that of winning the war and those who opposed him had had a similar idea. The closing scene which took place in Parliament yesterday was something of a love feast. The cabinet ranks are closed and everything goes on much as it did before. With the cabinet ministers, duty to the country comes first. Pri vate differences can be forgotten.

Hore-Belisha has undoubtedly done a great work i democratizing the army and popularizing the service. H retires with honor.

THE DIES REPORT

According to the report of the Dies Committee the s Communist Party is a "border patrol of Russia" for the benefit of Russia. United States workmen, the report says, IT "have borne the brunt of the Communist efforts" and suffer most from them but have resisted so successfully that only ten or twelve of some 48 C.I.O. unions are "more than tinged" with Communism.

ALL HELPING FINLAND

Nearly every country in the world, except Russia and Maple Leafs Germany, is doing something to help little Finland against Annette's the terror of being overrun by the Bolshevist hordes under Merchantettes direction of their Oriental leader Stalin. Following the Blue Birds pronouncement of the League of Nations many countries Rangers declared they would help and many other countries set to work quietly to do what they could without incurring the direct enmity of the tyrant. The most interested countries were Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland and Belgium. Men have been crossing the borders from Norway and Sweden and have drifted in from other countries while food, ammunition and airplanes as well as Red Cross sup-people read the Daily News. It is difficult to get anything like a complete idea of what help is being sent but enough is known to impress the world with the intensity of the feeling there is against Russia.
