

KEEP COOL THE "SALADA" WAY
 Use 6 heaping teaspoons of Salada Black Tea in a pint of fresh, boiling water. After 6 minutes strain liquid into 2-quart container; while hot, add 1 to 1½ cups of sugar and juice of 2 lemons, strained; stir until sugar is dissolved, fill container with cold water. Do not allow tea to cool before adding cold water or liquid will become cloudy. Serve with chipped ice. The above makes 7 tall glasses.

PARADE WAS SUCCESSFUL

Response To Local Defence Corps Is Highly Gratifying

The first parade of the Prince Rupert Canadian Legion Defence Corps Tuesday evening was an unqualified success. Over 80 members turned out for the initial drill. The Armory had been kindly lent for the occasion by Lt.-Col. S. D. Johnston, M. C., V. D., Officer Commanding the area and the co-operation of the officer commanding the Irish Fusiliers. Included in the parade were veterans of the South African War, the Great War, naval units and many without any previous military training. Youths of sixteen and veterans of seventy-five were all there. There were privates of the last war and non-commissioned officers and commissioned officers up to the rank of major but all were imbued with the same spirit—to do what they could in this time of Canada's trial to show the enemy that the farthest west was in this fight just as much as the people of the Old Land.

After brief introductory remarks by Norman Watt, the parade was taken over by Regimental Sergeant-Major Simpkins who gave a talk on the need for and the value of discipline. Then dividing the large turn-out into two squads he began at the beginning and put the squads through the elementary formation of "threes" and then went on to the positions of "attention," "at ease" "easy" and then the turns. There was keenest attention to all instructions and a very evident satisfaction by all that they were doing something. The sergeant-major was not understating facts when he said, with apparent reservation: "For a bunch of raw recruits you are doing well." Mr. Watt thanked the instructor for his fine work and then, after being dismissed, the members filled in the new registration forms. The drills will continue weekly on Tuesdays and others who wish may join next week.

Playground Doll Contest Pretty

Colorful Affair Yesterday Afternoon With More Than Sixty Entries

The Gyro playgrounds doll contest yesterday afternoon in the playground headquarters proved a colorful affair with an entry of sixty dolls. Dolls in beautiful dresses, dolls in character costumes, dolls in overalls, dolls in bathing costume and dolls in no costume all added bright splashes of color to the display. Although only one doll in each class was the proud wearer of a championship ribbon, every entry deserved honorable mention. From the tiny celluloid kewpie dolls to the life size wax ma-ma dolls, every conceivable type, was represented and the judges experienced difficulty in declaring the final winners.

Detailed results:
 Best dressed doll—Nina Youngman, Acropolis Playground.
 Prettiest doll—Bernice Mostad, McClymont Playground.
 Most original doll—Bessie Lee, Acropolis Playground.
 Largest doll—Shirley Anne Pierce, Westview Playground.
 Smallest doll—Peggy Pullen, McClymont Playground.
 Judges were Mrs. Croft Brook and Mrs. J. R. Morison.

KISS YOUR TIRED FEELING GOODBYE!
 Peppless Many Suffer Low Blood Count—And Don't Know It.
 The baffling thing about low blood count is that you can weigh about as much as you ever did—even look healthy and strong, yet you can feel as if you had lead in your legs, dopey, tired and peppless.
 Low blood count means you haven't got enough red blood corpuscles. It is their vital job to carry life-giving oxygen from your lungs throughout your body. And just as it takes oxygen to explode gasoline in your car and make the power to turn the wheels, so you must have plenty of oxygen to explode the energy in your body and give you going power.
 Get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today. They are world-famous for the help they give in increasing the number and strength of red corpuscles. Then with your blood count up you'll feel like bounding up the stairs as if you were floating on air. Ask your druggist for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today.
