Union steamer Catala, Capt. Ernest Sheppard, returned to port tory Cove; P. Hudson, city; Adam at 9 o'clock last night from Stew- Morris, Dawson. art and other northern points and sailed at 9:30 p.m. in continuation of her voyage to Vancouver and waypoints.

Bella Bella and Smith's Inlet areas will be closed to net salmon fishing this week-end, it is announced today at offices of the Department of Fisheries. This Rupert district, leaving the north there. end of the Queen Charlotte Islands the only area in the whole district remaining open. The sum of chums is rapidly falling off and a number of seiners at the north end of the island abandoned fishing at the end of last week. Inverness, Prince Rupert and Namu canneries on the mainland and Pacofi and Lagoon Bay on the Queen Charlotte Islands are still in operation but the most if not all of these will be closing this week-end as far as salmon canning is concerned, it is expected. Prince Rupert has been running along lately on fish from Alaska.

"We've got to deliver"

CONDUCTOR: "Working hard, Sam?"

ENGINEER: "You're telling me but I guess we shouldn't complain—we've got safe jobs, and we're making good money."

CONDUCTOR: "That's right—and we don't have any bombs dropping on us. We've got lots to be thankful for, I guess."

ENGINEER: "It sort of puts it up to us to do all we can. It's our war and we've got to win . . . wish I could do more."

CONDUCTOR: "Well, one thing we can all do is to buy more War Savings Certificates. Money talks ... you've heard that before ... and in a modern war money fights."

ENGINEER: "That's little enough to do, isn't it . . . just lend our money . . . and for every $4.00 we invest in War Savings Certificates we get back $5.00."

CONDUCT R: "Yes. I'm investing $20.00 in War Savings every month. At the end of seven and a half years I'll get back $25.00 every month. That'll be handy to have. We must all buy more War Savings Certificates . . . we've got to deliver."

The help of every Canadian is needed for Victory. In these days of war the thoughtless, selfish spender is a traitor to our war effort. A reduction in personal spending is now a vital necessity to relieve the pressure for goods, to enable more and more labour and materials to be diverted to winning the war. The all-out effort, which Canada must make, demands this self-denial of each of us.
