Canadian War Services Fund Well Supported in Prince Rupert-$8300 is Realized

Rooms of those who had worked in connection with the Canadian War Services Fund drive just completed.

Col. J. W. Nicholls, president, was in the chair and, after a few opening general remarks, paid special tribute to those who had so willingly and ably given of their time and energy in the interests of the boys in the various branches of His Majesty's Service. He paid a special compliment to those-who had what was possibly the hardest task, namely that of visiting each house in the residential district and making a personal appeal.

Vice-president Harry Breen of the Canadian Legion spoke a few words in supporting those of Col. Nicholls and wished to make a special reference to the splendid assistance given by the Chinese and Japanese residents of the community whose donations were a credit to them.

After the meeting was adjourned Canadian Legion president, Harry "What made you become a night Breen announced that the Legion watchman?"
