BIG PARTY FOR GRAYS

Highly Esteemed Residents Of Smithers Honored On Golden Wedding Anniversary

SMITHERS, Dec. 8:-One of the Thiepval area on the Western finest social events of its kind Front. ever to take place in Smithers was held here last Friday evening when some three hundred friends of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Gray filled the Anglican hall to capacity to honor them in the celebration of their golden wedding anniver-

Mr. and Mrs. Gray received the biggest surprise of their 50 years of married life when they entered he hall to find it filled to overflowing by their well-wishers. They had expected a small party were not prepared for what they found.

James Brough was master of ceremonies for the occasion and carried out his duties very effici-

The stage of the hall was prettily decorated and a table in front of the stage bore a large wedding cake. Mr. and Mrs. Gray and their children and grandhildren occupied seats on both sides of the table in front of the

The stage itself was occupied by he Smithers Brass Band which endered a number of selections 12. during the evening. The band was organized by Mr. Gray in 1929 and has been carrying on under his leadership ever since that time. Walter Bodger was acting bandmaster for the evening.

A musical program was presented. Mrs. A. B. Washbern was pianist and Mrs. Margaret Warner and Miss Doris Barker soloists. An instrumental trio was played by Mr. Bodger and his daughters, Helen and Dorreen. All the numbers rendered being much appreciated.

Mr. Brough presented Mrs. Gray vith a well filled purse in appreciation of the many kind deeds and christian acts which she had done during the twenty-eight vears they had lived in Smithers. Mr. Gray was presented with fishing tackle which would delight any follower of Isaak Walton and which will no doubt see plenty of service in the coming years.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Gray were visibly affected as they made suitable reply to the good wishes expressed by Mr. Brough.

After receiving the many guests at the party dancing was enjoyed for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray were married n Aberdeen. Scotland, 50 years ago and, after living there for seven years, they came to Canada and lived in Montreal for some time. In 1910 they arrived in Prince Rupert where they lived until 1913, leaving there at that time and moving to Smithers where they have lived ever since.

They are among the best known and most well respected citizens of the Bulkley Valley and this was well attested to by the gathering of their friends on the night of Detember 4 to congratulate them on having reached their fiftieth wedding anniversary and to wish 'hem many more years of happi-

At the time of the Smithers wenty-fifth anniversary celebraion three years ago Mrs. Gray was presented with the Good Citizenship Medal.

Telegrams from old friends from all over the province were read at the party, conveying congratulations and good wishes. One of these bore the names of a great many former Smithers citizens now residing in Vancouver.

KITKATLA WEDDING

Martha Gordon Becomes Bride of Dwyer Lewis at Pretty Ceremony.

St. Peter's Anglican Church at Kitkatla was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon from Toronto to conduct the inlast, the Rev. B. Shearman officiating, when Martha, eldest daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Gordon, and the late Casper Gordon, became the bride of Dwyer, eldest son of couver, will arrive on the Prince Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis. George Wednesday morning to

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Johnson Gordon. She made a pretty picture in her wedding gown of white silk sheet and her long bridal veil of rulle, carrying a bouquet of pink rose buds and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Mrs. Flora Hili, as matron of honor, in a gown of pale pink organdie, and little Thelma Tolmie as flower girl in pale blue sheer, carrying a basket of pink roses. Maud Lewis and Alberta Bolton were trainbearers, both prettily attired in British Prime Miniter. German pale pink sheer.

The Wedding March was playleavy artillery bombardments in ed by Norman Lewis.

Wilfred Jackson was the groomsman. The Kitkatla Concert Band was in attendance, under the leadership of Henry Brown, and played the bridal party to and from the church.
