NAZIS ATTACK BRISTOL

LONDON-The West England city of Bristol was subjected to another concentrated attack by the Nazi air force last night. Enemy planes came over wave after wave. They followed the usual procedure-first dropping flare bombs, then incendiaries and then high explosive steel bombs to deal death and destruction. Casualties and damage were considerable but many buildings were saved through the efficiency of precautionary measures and fire fighting services. Elsewhere in England there were sporadic raids last night. London had three alarms but the actual bombings were not heavy or serious. Bristol was again visited by the enemy raiders last night as well as Liverpool and elsewhere in the northwest.

BULGARIA TO RESIST INVASION

SOFIA-King Boris of Bulgaria, in a speech before Parliament yesterday, expressed firm determination to resist German invasion of his country. "Our country definitely does not want war," King Boris said "and we shall not be a party to attack upon any of our neighbors."

GERMANS FIGHTING GREEKS

ISTANBUL—German war planes are now in action against the Greeks, it is realiably reported here. Four hundred Nazi pilots are now said to be assisting the Italians.

HITLER'S CHANCES GONE

LONDON-The "free" German radio station is on the air again. In a broadcast last night it declared that Hitler's chances of winning the war were gone. It recited deeds of cruelty by the Nazis.

DIFFICULTY OF INVASION

NEW YORK-American military observers are inclined to the belief that an invasion of England by Germany would be a much more difficult task than would have been an assault on the Maginot Line which never was put to the test. There would be extreme difficulty in landing anywhere in Great Britain even under the most favorable of auspices such as mastery of the air and widespread gas attack and any landing forces would face almost certain annihilation. German troops are believed to have no stomach for an invasion attempt as the water is not their dish. Already many Germans have been drowned in rehearsal of invasion attempts. At the best, lightly armed Nazi invaders would have to face tremendous British mechanized forces as well as a well-equipped army of two million men, hundreds of thousands of trained home guards and "every British man, woman and child" all of whom despise the Germans.

FRENCH SHIPS TORPEDOED

VICHY-The French submarine Sfax and auxiliary warship Rhone, which sank after heavy explosions while moving from Casablanca to Daker, were torpedoed, according to information reaching here. Sixty-four of the crew of the Sfax were lost and ten of the Rhone.

Daring Motorcycle Raids Carried On By British On German-Occupied France

NEW YORK, January 4: (CP) - William Mc-Gaffin, Associated Press staff writer, said today that he had learned shortly before leaving England three weeks ago that British forces up to that time had carried out at least nine daring motorcycle raids into German-occupied France.

The raiders were carried to a lonely coastal spot by trawler and fifty soldiers, each with machine-gun bearing motorcycle, stole ashore to terrorize the army of occupation, take prisoners and carry out sabotage.

LONDON, Jan. 4: (CP) - The great German port of Bremen was still burning Friday night when the Royal Air Force again smashed at it, starting new fires and adding to the destruction of the Wednesday and Thursday night attacks. The British pilots said they were unable to see the bursting of their bombs because of flames. The third big raid on Bremen in three nights lasted all Friday night and started enormous new fires, the Air Ministry announced. Planes Persist In Visiting Capital Of Eire And Dropping Bombs Thereon

TYPICAL GERMAN REPLY

DUBLIN, Jan. 4:-Replying to the vigorous protest of Premier Eamonn de Valera of Eire against the bombing of his neutral country and the demand for reparations and assurance that there shall be no recurrence, the German government suggests that the Royal Air Force carried out the raids on Eire. No German fliers had been sent to Eire. The explanation of course, not accepted by Eire since the bombs have been identified as being German. Irish troops have been ordered to stand by barracks for any eventuality and anti-aircraft guns have been ordered to fire on any unidentified planes passing over. Bringing of Eire into the war would make it more difficult for Britain. Eire's defences are deficient and Great Britain would have to divert land, naval WASHINGTON. D. Two Young Men Drown When Thin Ice Gives Way

Double Fatality Occurred in Front of Town About Half Mile From Shore — Little Chance of Recovering Bodies

William Robert Smith, aged 24, of Burnaby, and Lawrence Lionus Pettigrew, 24, of Biggar, Saskatchewan, were drowned in Atlin Lake at 2:15 yesterday afternoon when thin ice on which they were skating broke through and they dropped into waters of the deep lake. Dragging operations are being conducted, says a message received by provincial police headquarters here from Constable Bennett of Atlin, but little hope is held for the recovery of the bodies owing to the extreme depth of the water.

The tragedy occurred in front of the town about half a mile from shore. The ice was newly formed and thin. There is no doubt that the two young men were drowned. Smith's mother, Mrs. E. Smith, lives at 2149 Gray Avenue, Burnaby. Pettigrew is the son of Adam Pettigrew of Biggar, Saskatchewan, and the brother of Howard Pettigrew, 1125 West Eighth Avenue,

SHIP IS MYSTERY

Big Unidentified Vessel Reported Operating in North Pacific

SAN FRANCISCO—The United States Coastguard, operating out of Ketchikan, reports having sighted a mysterious and unidentified vessel steaming towards the Bering Sea. Some 400 feet long and painted battleship grey, it failed to answer queries sent to it by the coastguard. As it was outside territorial waters, no attempt was made to intercept it.

As far as can be learned, it was not an American or an Allied ship. There is considerable speculation as to its identity.

REVENUE OF YEAR IS UP

Customs and Excise Collections in 1940 Are Almost Double of 1939

Customs and excise revenue at the port of Prince Rupert during the year 1940 was almost double that of the year 1939 and was the heaviest for any year since 1936 when the total was $241,378.35. The total for this December was $21,-573.93 in comparison with $8,787.66 in December 1939.

Customs and excise revenue at Prince Rupert month by month for 1940 was as follows, 1939 figures being shown for comparison:
