DAILY EDITION — FRIDAY, NOV. 7, 1941.

Touring Canada . . .

It was announced from Ottawa recently that a delegate from Cairo was to make a tour of Canada. The places to be visited included Toronto, Ottawa, Kingston, Hamilton, Welland, Brantford, Guelph, Galt, London, Montreal and Quebec City. All these cities are in Ontario except Quebec City. Evidently that is the conception some people have of what constitutes Canada. There are only seven provinces not mentioned as to be visited. But that is just a trifle.

Expert Opinion . . .

When President Roosevelt and Winston Churchill met last summer at their rendezvous in the Atlantic, they began discussing the campaign being waged by the Russian army . . . "Tell me, Winston," asked the president, "how long did your generals tell you the Russian army would last?" "Three weeks," answered the prime minister. "And what did your generals tell you?" "They said two weeks," replied the president, "but please don't mention it to them. They're very sensitive about it."

In the evening supper was served to about 150 guests by the Senior Choir. Following the supper there was an interesting address by Rev. J. A. Donnell, pastor of First United Church, a recitation by Major McLennan and the showing of moving pictures by A. Turnbull proved very interesting. Rev. A. F. McSween acted as chairman.

A Trilogy

By Jay Ess

1914

Full of the vision of youth,
And the courage to dare.
Glad to enlist in the forces
And do his full share
For his country.

1916

"Rest after toil, port after stormy seas"
Bravely he fought and endured,
But for him there's no ease—
Crippled for life!
But his sacrifice freely was made
For his country.

Poppy Day—1941

Was it worth while, twenty-five years ago?
Still he pays—in darkness and pain.
Passing years bring no joy.
Is he forgotten by those whom he served
And a new generation?
No. Give him hope—give your substance for him
Who gave all
For OUR Country.

GETS AN IRON CROSS

SHEFFIELD, Eng., Nov. 7: (CP)—Henry Knibbs, a park keeper, found an iron cross under a holly bush at Mortonly Park near here. "Its good condition showed it could not have been there long," he said.
