LOCAL NEWS NOTES

D. Cavalier is sailing tonight on the Catala for a trip to Vancouver.

Ladies' First Aid Classes will commence Wed., 24th, at 8 p.m. in Red Cross Room, City Hall.

Miss Kathleen Lang of the local Anglican Japanese mission left on last evening's train for a trip to Haysport and Port Essington.

Delbert Kuehl, who arrived in the city at the week-end from Ketchikan, left on last evening's train for a trip to Minneapolis.

The many friends of Mrs. Bert Creech will be pleased to know that she has returned from Vancouver much improved in health.

A. J. Lancaster, provincial collector, returned to the city Saturday afternoon from Terrace where he had spent the week on official duties.

Miss Kay MacIntyre was in the city at the end of the week enroute from Ocean Falls for a visit to her home at Skidegate. She sailed on the Camosun Saturday night for the Queen Charlotte Islands.

E. D. Bickerton of Vancouver, having arrived from the south earlier in the week, sailed Saturday night on the Camosun for Massett. Mrs. Bickerton is already at Massett and will return south with him.

Stephen Dumas, formerly of Alice Arm and more recently located at The Pas and Sherritt-Gordon in Northern Manitoba and in the Peace River district, arrived in the city recently and has joined the dry dock staff.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Carson arrived in the city on Saturday night's train from Toronto and have resumed residence for a couple of months in their home at Emmerson Place. Their sons, Jack and Pat, are remaining in Toronto to attend school.

Why keep that old piece of furniture in the basement or the attic. Turn it into cash by advertising it in the "For Sale" column of The Daily News.

A charge against Johnny Saunders of keeping liquor for sale was dismissed in city police court by Magistrate W. D. Vance.

Tonight's train, due to arrive from the East at 12:00 daylight saving time, was reported this morning to be on time.

O. T. Sundal, after a week-end business visit to the city, left by last evening's train on his return to Terrace. He arrived from the interior Saturday afternoon.

E. Enright, freight cashier for the Union Steamship Co. at Vancouver, after a visit to Bella Coola, was here aboard the steamer Cardena on Saturday, returning to Vancouver.

FOR A QUICK LUNCH:—

A CUP OF BOVRIL and a Sandwich

Rev. Victor Fiddes of Saskatoon, who has been paying a visit at Port Simpson with his brother, Dr. Fiddes, medical superintendent of the hospital there, left by last evening's train on his return to the prairies.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McLeod expect to leave the city at the latter part of next week for Vancouver to take up future residence. They have been popular residents of Prince Rupert for the past eleven years and their departure will be regretted by many friends.

Sons of Norway Dance Enjoyable

A very enjoyable dance was held last Thursday night by the Sons of Norway Lodge in the Oddfellows' Hall. About one hundred and fifty persons were in attendance and dancing was in progress from 10 p.m. until 2 a.m. Nels Gunderson was master of ceremonies and good music was rendered by Corp. Bob Townsend and Mrs. J. S. Black.

At midnight delicious refreshments were served with Mrs. John Storseth, Mrs. Peter Peterson and Mrs. Oscar Sather in charge. John Storseth presided at the door.
