Man in the Moon

"Adieu, adieu, kind friends, adieu!" Jake was singing this morning as he thought of the Irish Fusiliers going away.

Hello, Rocky Mountain Rangers! All coming here as strangers. Let's make them feel they're here among friends.

They're just coming here to train. And will not mind the rain. Hospitality is sure to make amends.

Tom: "My dad has Nelson's watch."

Bill: "That's nothing. My dad has Adam's apple."

Irishman defending himself in a poaching case: "Indeed, your worship, the only bird I shot was a rabbit and I knocked it down with a stick."

Jake is not altogether an expert in writing advertisements. Here is something he turned in recently: "Fore sale, piano by a widow lady with carved legs."

Grandpa was having his afternoon sleep in the armchair and emitting sounds that might easily have come from a cross-cut saw. As father entered the room, he saw little Billy twisting one of grandpa's waistcoat buttons.

"What are you doing?" he whispered. "You mustn't disturb grandpa, Billy."

"I'm not disturbing him, daddy," explained the child. "I was just trying to tune him in on another station."

The Digby Island ferryboat Catherine B. was withdrawn from the run this morning and moved up to the dry dock where she will undergo her annual overhaul. The vessel will be off for the next week or so, it is expected. The smaller light-house tender Birnie will carry out the Digby Island run while the Catherine B. is off.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

A gas derrick scow, which recently broke adrift from the Armour Salvage Co.'s power tug Pachena while being towed from Allford Bay to Prince Rupert, is still resting high and dry at high tide on the sand five miles below Rose Spit on the east coast of Graham Island. There is little danger of further deterioration. It is believed, and, as soon as weather becomes more favorable, equipment will be sent across Hecate Straits to pick it up and bring it on into Prince Rupert.

Albert Farrow, steamboat inspector, is due in the city on the Prince Rupert tomorrow morning from Vancouver. He will inspect the steamer Prince George, which is undergoing her annual overhaul at the local dry dock, as well as other vessels including the Digby Island ferry boat Catherine B.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. Ernest Sheppard, again returned in good time at 7:15 this morning from Stewart and other northern points and will sail at 1:30 this afternoon for Vancouver and waypoints.

WEDDED AT KITWANGA

Miss Sarah Wilson of Hazelton Becomes Bride Of Harold D. Sinclair

KITWANGA, Feb. 11.—A quiet wedding took place at Kitwanga last Friday when Miss Sarah Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson of Hazelton, became the bride of Harold D. Sinclair of Kitwanga. The marriage was solemnized at the home of the Anglican missionary by Rev. Frank Burling of Hazelton, assisted by the missionaries, Mr. and Mrs. John Hayhurst. The witnesses were Lay Readers James Ryan and M. H. Bright.

In the evening a wedding party was held in the Kitwanga Community Hall when many friends gathered to extend their best wishes and congratulations to the couple. All the head chiefs and the old and young people alike were in attendance, the affair being very enjoyable. Mrs. Mary V. Harris and Miss Clara Fowler had charge of the serving of refreshments.

Among the speakers who extended felicitations to the couple were Chief David L. Wells, Chief George De-wel-lasque, Chief W. B. Morgan, Chief Councillor M. H. Bright, Chief Paul Benson and Chief Charles Dudoward of Port Simpson, the last-mentioned being a special guest, accompanied by Mrs. Dudoward and Mrs. F. D. Sampson. The bridegroom gave a speech of appreciation. The proceedings closed with prayer by Honorary Captain Henry Lett of the Church Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair have left for the Kitwanga Valley to take up residence at the tie camp of the groom who has a contract from the Canadian National Railways.
