Do It Today - - -

Planning for tomorrow is nothing like as sure as doing it today. Tomorrow may never come for a great many of us. Today is here and if we make up our minds to do something we can usually manage it, whether it be paying bills or buying war certificates. Just now we are not campaigning for payment of bills but we are out to boost the investment of savings in war certificates to help send more munitions to blow Hitler and his minions off the map and to feed the British people so that they may be able to continue the fight. You are not asked to give. All that is asked is that you lend your money and it will be repaid with interest.

Gossip - - -

We are usually told that gossip is one of the evils of the day and we are urged to avoid it is we would the plague yet very few people seem to avoid it. Walter B. Pitkin, writing in the Rotarian Magazine, says the world could not run without gossip. His warning is that there is good gossip and bad gossip. We presume most people will agree that there is a kindly gossip and gossip of the unkind variety and it is against the unkind, vicious gossip that we are warned.

Causing Unhappy Divisions - - -

It is evident that Canadian people have not yet got down to forgetting politics and personal gain and devoting themselves to war work. That unfortunate Ottawa conference was untimely and caused disasifaction. Some few Canadian journals have done much more harm in causing distrust than any American journals which have been blamed for doing the same thing.
