From The Waterfront

Usually the first week or so in, time approaches the run may be few days with Mr. and Mrs. C. J. said to have not even commenced. Norrington. Seiners have been able to get only a few scattered hauls so far. There has been no fishing in steady or appreciable volume. As February ends the boats are ranging far and wide in the endeavour to locate runs. Some fears are being entertained that the run may be a complete failure. Herring canning and reduction plants are standing ready awaiting a supply of fish. Halibut operators are worrying if there will even be a sufficient supply for the year's bait requirements.
