MARRIAGE

Miss Anne Boddie Becomes Bride Of Douglas Stevenson

A beautiful wedding was solem nized yesterday afternoon in St. Peter's Church, Seal Cove, amid a lovely setting of pink crysanthemums, when Anne Elizabeth, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Boddie, became the bride of Dougas Coney Stevenson, son of B. Stevenson of Vancouver and the late Mrs. Stevenson, Canon W. Rushbrook officiating.

The bride was beautiful in floor length gown of pink net with full skirt and trim of gold braid and flowing veil of pink net fastened to the head with a wreath of orange blossoms. The wreath had been worn by her mother on her wedding day. She carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses and entered the church on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage. The Wedding March was played by Mrs. C. J. Norrington at the organ.

The matron of honor, Mrs. R. M. Burnett, sister of the bride, was charming in a gown of aqua marine brocaded taffeta, with primrose hat and carried a bou-

George L. Rorie was groomsman and L. M. Gordon and C. A. Kelett were ushers.

During the signing of the regis-Mrs. T. Dixon sang 'Because Love You Dear," accompanied y Mrs. Norrington.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Ninth Avenue East. Mrs. Boddie, mother of the bride, in a gown of blue and white flowered chiffon with velvet hat to match and wearing a corsage of pink carnations, received the guests.

L. M. Gordon was toastmaster. Canon Rushbrook proposed the toast to the bride which was responded to by the groom and Col. . W. Nicholls proposed the toast to the matron of honor to which the groomsman responded.

The bride duly cut the beautiful three-tier wedding cake, which was centred on a table prettily decorated with lace cloth, pink tapers and pink and white carnations. The rooms were tastefully decorated for the occasion with pink crysanthemums.

Those assisting were Mrs. G. A. Kelsey, Mis. W. Skinner, Mrs. J. Joy, Mrs. J. E. Morris, Mrs. G. R. Kelsey, Mrs. G. L. Rorie and Mrs. Fraser.

Many beautiful gifts were on display testifying to the popularity of the young couple Several telegrams of congratulation were re-

Later the happy couple sailed | aboard the Prince Rupert for a honeymoon in the south. The bride chose as her going-away costume a dress of brown wool crepe with gold sequin trim with hat and accessories to match and coat of brown muskrat and wore a corsage of pink rose buds.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson will take up residence in the city. The groom is identified with Nelson Bros. Fisheries. The bride has been accountant at the Pioneer Laundry. The couple are well known and popular and will thave congratulations and best wishes of many friends.

OF PASTOR

Rev. A. F. MacSween Officially Installed At First Presbyterian Church

Rev. Alex F. MacSween was inducted as pastor of First Presbyterian Church on Wednesday night by Rev. A. T. McIntosh of White Rock, acting in the absence of Rev. J. B. Skene of Vancouver, moderator of General Assembly, who was unable to be here. The induction service took place in the church parlors, it being impossible to use the church auditorium owing to the black-out. Mrs. E. J. Smith accompanied the hymns which were "O God of Bethel" and "Sun of My Soul."

Mr. McIntosh returned south on the Prince George this morning after his brief visit here to conduct the induction.

SMOKE DRIED LEAVES

PARIS, Dec. 12: (P)-Autumn is over in this Nazi-occupied city but the odor of burning leaves remains. Many Frenchmen, denied their favorite cigarettes or tobacco, are getting by on dried leaves.
